Mr. and Mrs. Brinson Honored Saturday Eve.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Brinson, recent bride and groom, were honored on Saturday evening with a floating shower in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thurman Brown of Kenansville. The hostesses were Mesdames Brown, Willard Brinson, Maurice Brinson and Miss Edna Earle Edgerton.

Mr. and Mrs. Willard Brinson greeted the callers at the door, and presented them. Receiving in the living room were Mr. and Mrs. Brown, the honorees, Mrs. John Goodman, the bride's mother, and Mrs. Cora E. Brinson, the groom's mother. Miss Mary Ellen Goodman, sister of the bride, received in the dining room where Miss Edna Earle Edgerton poured punch. Misses Janet Gordon, Jean Tyndall, and Hilda Brinson served cookies and salted nuts, assisted by Mrs. Percy Blanton.

The table was covered with an embroidered imported Irish linen cloth and centered with a low arrangement of chrysanthemums in a crystal bowl. White candles in a three branched crystal candelabra flanked the centerpiece. The punch bowl was decorated with Galax leaves.

Mrs. Woodrow Brinson presided at the bride's book. Mrs. Flake Sechler, of China Grove, invited the guests into the gift room where Mrs. E. D. Edgerton, with Mrs. Dan Templeton, of China Grove, greeted the guests. Saying goodbyes were Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Brinson.

The reception rooms were candlelighted and decorated with chrysanthemums.

Bridge Club Meets

Mrs. J. R. Grady was hostess to the members of her bridge club on Monday evening. Prior to adjournment high score prize was awarded Mrs. Vance Gavin for club members and to Miss Hilda Clontz for visitors. Mrs. Grady served coca colas, sandwiches and salted nuts.

Announce Marriage

Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Thomas of Beulaville, announce the marriage of their daughter, Marguerite, to Mr. Bill Williamson of Kenansville on Saturday, November 3, in Kingston. Mr. and Mrs. Williamson will make their home in Kenansville.

Scout Week Observed

Last week was Girl Scout Week and it was well observed by the Scouts in Kenansville. Sunday the Girl Scouts went to church in uniform, with a good group in both patrols.

Tuesday, the regular meeting was held with Scout Shirley Tyndall as hostess, at which time an informal board of review was held. Membership cards for the New Year, which expires August 1946, were given to scouts and troop committeemen present; after which Theo Hollingsworth was invested as a new tenderfoot scout. Mesdames Eugene Tyndall, G. V. Gooding, Parker Quinn and Miss Gertrude Johnson, assistant scout leader, assisted Mrs. N. B. Boney, scout leader. Scout Tyndall served coca colas and cookies.

Friday, the Scouts met in the Scout rooms at 4:00 and joined the Boy Scouts in a Motorcade to Crooms Lodge. Kenansville was represented by forty-six scouts and interested friends.

Tuesday afternoon of this week, the Girl Scouts held their regular meeting and practiced for the parade in the Armistice Day Celebration.

Giles-Dobson

Miss Janet Dobson, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Perry J. Dobson, of Kenansville, N. C., and

George Giles, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Giles, of Cherry Valley, New York, were married in a private ceremony here on Thursday afternoon, November 1, 1945, at 5 o'clock in the home of the bride's parents. Rev. Joseph Graham Morrison, pastor of the Grove Presbyterian church of Kenansville, N. C., officiated using the impressive ring ceremony.

Miss Ruth Giles, of Cherry Valley, New York, sister of the groom sang James Whitcomb Riley's Prayer-Poem. She was accompanied at the piano by Mrs. J. G. Morrison, who also played the wedding march.

The bride was escorted by her father, Perry J. Dobson, by whom she was given in marriage. She wore a white wool suit with brown accessories and a shoulder corsage of white roses.

The groom, a veteran of World War II, was attended by his father M. S. Giles, of Cherry Valley, N. Y., as best man.

Prior to the ceremony, the white candles in tall candleabra were lighted by Arnold Dobson, of Wilmington, N. C., who is the bride's brother.

The vows were spoken in front of an improvised altar of long leaf pine interspersed with white chrysanthemums and fern.

Immediately following the ceremony, the bride's parents entertained at an informal reception for the bridal couple, out of town guests and near neighbors. A color scheme of green and white was carried out in the decorations.

The dining table was overlaid with a large cloth and centered with three tier wedding cake, topped with a miniature bride and groom. The Doboos were assisted by Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Jerritt and Mrs. Doris Dobson Fulgo in entertaining their guests.

TWENTY SEVEN YEARS Ago

World War I ended and since that time we have annually celebrated the end of that conflict.

TODAY

We have just concluded another war, more terrible than the first - The people of Duplin County have contributed unstintingly of their resources, their funds, their boys and girls to bring about another Armistice. It is our profound wish that the second Armistice Celebration will not have been in vain.
