Education And Price

Control Relation

The future of education for America's children and youth is directly related to our nation's success in holding prices steady in the months ahead, Chester Bowles, Price Administrator, said in commenting on American Education Week, Nov. 11-17.

In his talk Mr. Bowles declared that if we keep prices stable, we will protect the buying power of every school dollar spent for teachers' salaries, building and equipment, and thus safeguarding the quality of education we need and want for tomorrow's citizens.

A postwar inflation would destroy the living standards of teachers and the building programs of school systems, he asserted.

Poultry Prices

Rising Again

Although the poultry supply is still greater than the demand, the producer price on broilers has gone back to 29 cents from the 25 cent price of two weeks ago, it has been reported by State Agriculture Department.

Hens increased from 20 to 25.3 cents per pound. Although there is poor demand for heavy turkeys, the lighter grades and all hens are in rather good demand at 32 to 35 cents.

Buy Used Tires

With Caution

Farmers and other motorists are advised by OPA to examine closely any used tires they buy to make sure they are not falling victim to the "junk tire racket" endangering the lives of citizens.

This racket has gained force as a result of the limited supply of sound used tires, OPA explained. To aid motorists in determining if a used tire is sound, OPA listed the following qualifications:

1. It should have tread design and no space four inches or longer should be without tread design.
2. The inside of the tire should be examined to see that it has no emergency repairs such as boots, reliners and cold patches and that it does not have more than three vulcanized repairs.
3. It should not have a repair that covers up a cut or break that is longer than half the tire's cross section diameter.
4. The tire must have no loose cords on the inside nor more than three radial cracks extending into the cord body of the tire. If a passenger tire has these defects, it may be sold only as a limited service casing with a ceiling of 75 cents, unless it has a reliner, which makes it worth $3.75, or a cemented reliner, which increases its value to $4.50.
5. The tire must not be water-soaked, dry rotted, hard or worn through more than half the plies. Such tires are scrap tires, worth only 15 cents.

BIG BEAR KILLED

BY STATE OFFICIAL

John G. Harris, an official of the Unemployment Compensation Commission, killed the largest bear ever taken in Eastern North Carolina last week, according to Frank Meacham, State Museum zoologist.

Harris killed the black bear, which weighed 406 pounds, on his farm near Fairfield in Hyde County.

In reporting the kill, Harris said that a full load of double-o buckshot in the bear's head from a distance of about eight feet failed to stop him, and he "calmly used his right paw to wipe the blood away." A second shot, however, killed him instantly. Harris intends to tan the hide for a rug.

How women and girls may get wanted relief from functional periodic pain

Cardui, many women say, has brought relief from the cramp-like aches and nervous strain of functional periodic distress. Taken like a tonic, it should stimulate appetite, aid digestion & thus help build resistance for the "time" to come. Started 3 days before "your time", it should help relieve pain due to purely functional periodic causes. Try it!

RETONGA "PUT HIM ON FEET" SAYS CO. TAX MAN

"I Feel Better Than In Years And Get Real Pleasure Out Of My Work Again," He States. Had Stayed On Job Through Will Power.

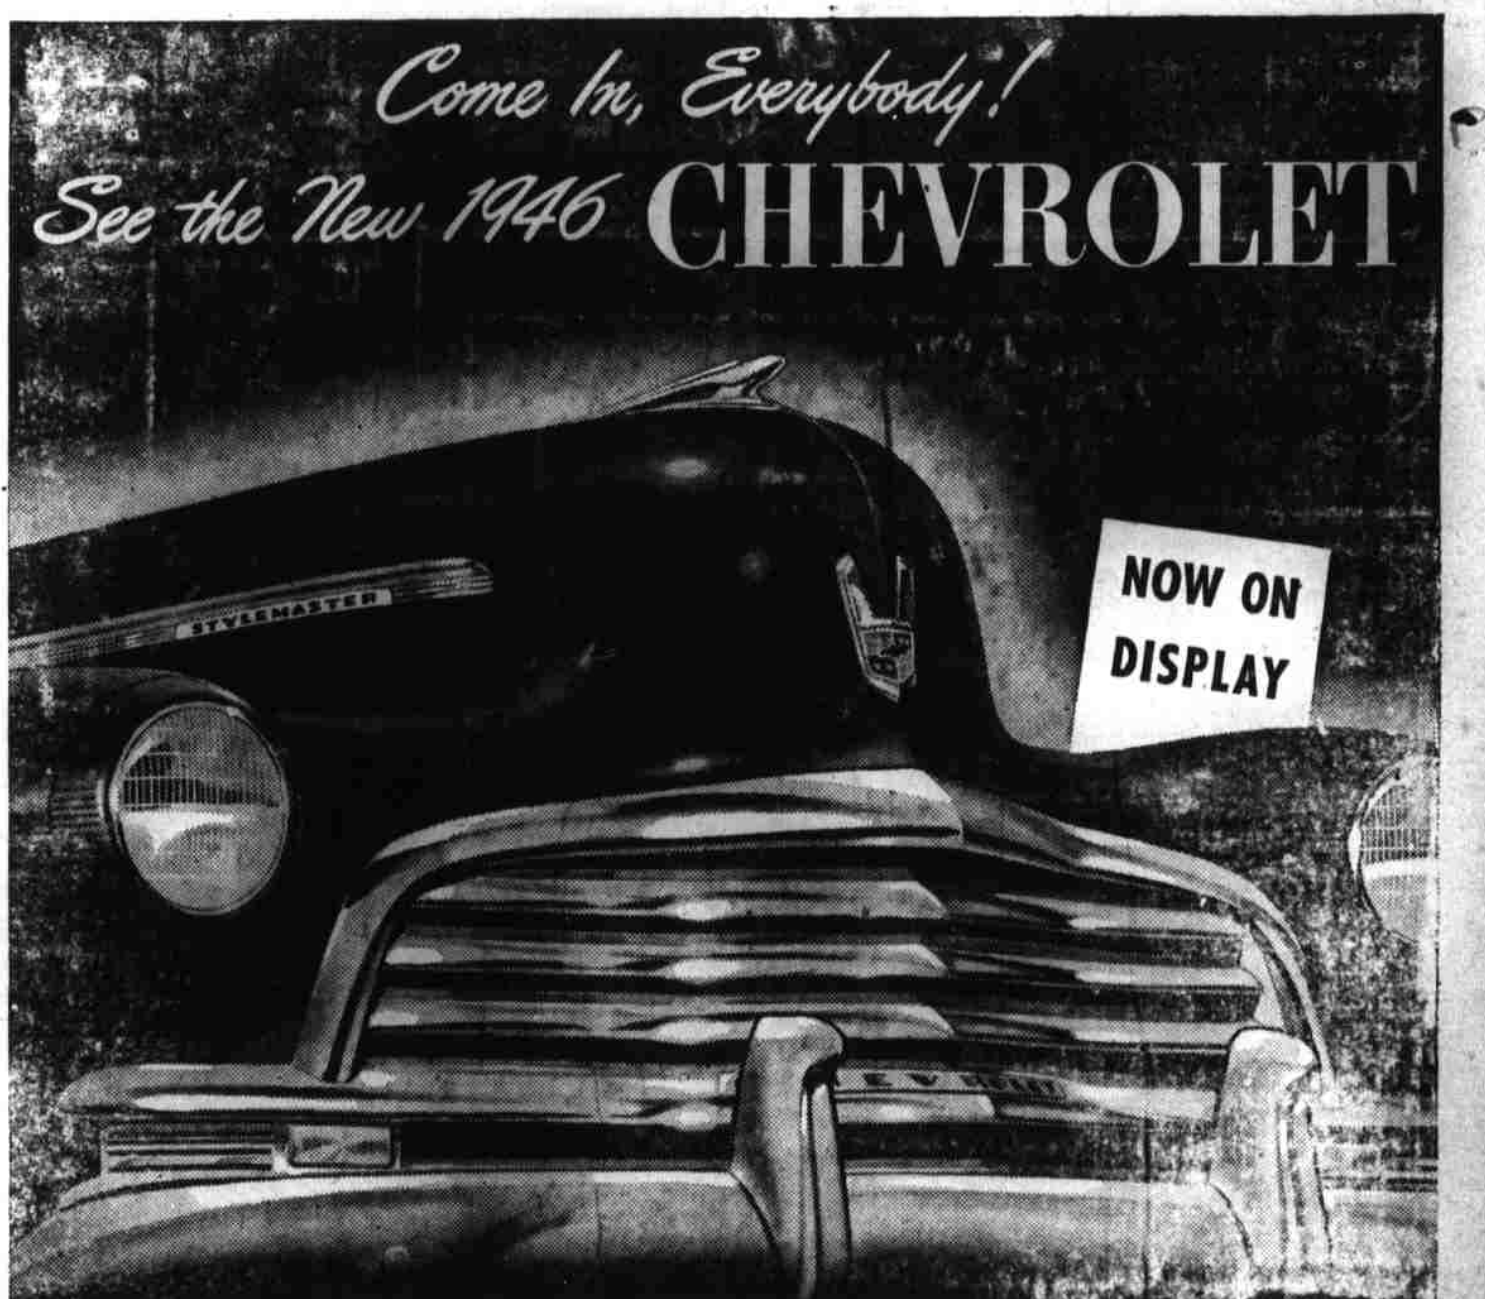

MR. FRED WAMPLER

Among the grateful endorsers of Retonga are scores of business men and public officials, and among the latest is Mr. Fred Wampler, well known hardware man in Dayton, Tenn., and Tax Assessor of Rhea County. Mr. Wampler had four sons and a son-in-law in the armed services. Discussing his case he happily stated: "During the past few years I stayed on the job largely through will-power alone. My nerves seemed over-taxed by too much work and some anxiety about my boys in the service. It it a job to raise thirteen children as my wife and I have, and naturally you neglect your own physical welfare at times. Acid indigestion seemed to get a firm grip on me and so did sluggish elimination. I felt so nervous I could not get proper rest at night. My appetite left me, and down hill I went. "The relief Retonga gave me was a life saver, as the saying is. I feel better and stronger than in years and I get real pleasure out of my work again. To use a common expression, Retonga surely put me on my feet." Retonga is intended to relieve distress due to Vitamin B-1 deficiency, constipation, insufficient flow of digestive juices in the stomach, and loss of appetite. Accept no substitute. Retonga may be obtained at the Kenansville Drug Store in Kenansville or at the Warsaw Drug Co., in Warsaw. (Adv.)
