McDONALD-HUBBARD

Miss Anne Ross Hubbard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Hubbard of Warsaw, became the bride of Sgt. Murdock G. McDonald, USMCR, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. McDonald of Wellesley Hills, Mass., on Oct. 30th, at 3:25 p. m. in the First Baptist Church of Dillon, S. C. The double ring ceremony was used. The Rev. Frank W. Lyon officiated.

The bride was attired in a Navy blue suit. Her accessories were of white. She wore a corsage of orchids.

After the ceremony the couple spent two days in Wilmington with relatives of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Martin. Returning by Warsaw for one day, the couple then left for the groom's home in Wellesley Hills, Mass., for a few days. They will make their home in upper New York State. Sgt. McDonald was discharged from the USMCR on Oct. 19.

Baptist WMU Meeting

The Woman's Missionary Union of the Baptist Church held its November meeting Tuesday afternoon at the church with 25 present and the President, Mrs. G. Van Stephens, presiding and leading the devotionals. The program on "Missions in Other Lands" was in charge of the Rosa Powell Circle, with Mrs. L. H. Brown, Chairman, assisted by Mesdames R. E. L. Wheelless and C. A. Womack, rendering a most interesting program.

Congressman Barden Is Entertained At Dinner

Mayor and Mrs. A. J. Jenkins delightfully entertained at 1 o'clock luncheon Monday honoring Congressman Graham A. Barden, of Washington, D. C., and New Bern, who was the principal speaker at the Armistice Day celebration.

The home on Hill Street was artistically decorated with chrysanthemums and the dining table was covered with an arrangement of roses.

Covers were laid for 16, including Congressman Barden, Faison Thompson, of Goldsboro, Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Bridgers, Mr. and Mrs. Walker Stevens, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Wall, Mrs. Henry L. Stevens, Jr., Mrs. Mary Quinn Gresham and Colonel Miller Perry, of Ft. Bragg, Mr. and Mrs. Jenkins and son, Johnny.

Methodist Board Of Stewards Enjoy Supper Party

Mrs. J. J. West and daughter, Mrs. Sterling Marriner, entertained the church officials and their wives Tuesday evening at their home on College St.

The West home was decorated with chrysanthemums and other fall flowers and dinner was served on individual tables.

During the evening the Chairman of the Board of Stewards, in behalf of the church, presented to the pastor, the Rev. A. M. Williams, a Victory Bond, just prior to his departure to Goldsboro for the Annual Conference.

Assisting the hostesses in entertaining and serving were Mesdames Milton West, Q. J. Sutton and W. E. Taylor.

Mrs. Gresham Hostess

Mrs. M. Q. Gresham was hostess Monday evening at 8 o'clock when she entertained at the home of her mother, Mrs. J. W. Quinn, on College St., at a lovely buffet supper, complimentary to out of town guests here for the Armistice Day celebration and dance.

Mrs. Quinn's colonial home was elaborately decorated throughout with lovely arrangements of chrysanthemums, except in the dining room where white asters centered the Venice lace covered table. Silver candelabra held burning tapers on the buffet and a dainty buffet supper was served to the guests in complete candlelight.

Assisting Mesdames Gresham and Quinn in entertaining and serving were Mesdames W. E. Taylor and Q. J. Sutton and Miss Sallie Bowden.

Covers were placed for 70 guests of which more than twenty were from out-of-town.
