

Kenansville Society and Personals

Girl Scouts Entertain

On last Wednesday afternoon the Kenansville Girl Scouts were hostesses to the B. F. Grady Girl

Scouts. Miss Edna Earle Edgerton, the leader of the B. F. Grady group and Miss Lena Chestnutt, assistant leader and Miss Bessie Kornegay, who is on the committee, brought the girls to Kenansville. The B. F. Grady scouts voted on the exhibits prepared by the Kenansville Girl Scouts.

The exhibits were quite remarkable and showed that much work and thought had gone into their preparation. First prize was awarded Mary Sue Burch who had arranged a scene of Alaska. Second score was a tie between Carolyn Williams, who prepared a study in black and white; Catherine Quinn, who had made a Dutch scene; and Frances Jean Patterson, who had a Christmas scene.

When the judging had been completed a social hour was enjoyed and the Scouts served Pepsi colas, pimento cheese sandwiches, doughnuts and salted pecans under the direction of their leader, Mrs. N. B. Boney.

P T A Meeting

The Parent Teachers Association met Monday evening with the President, Mrs. N. B. Boney, presiding. An excellent Christmas program was rendered by the high school girls under the direction of Misses Louise Ellis and Dorothy Frederick.

Regrets were expressed by the President at the loss of our popular principal, Mr. Ralph Carlton, and a rising vote of thanks was made to him by the group. Mrs. Mary Southerland also added a few comments and wished Mr. Carlton success in his new work.

Mrs. Emory Sadler's room was awarded the prize for having the most parents in attendance. At the social hour Christmas cookies and hot chocolate were served by the Home Economic girls, assisted by their leader, Miss Dorothy Frederick.

Marriage Announced

The following announcements have been received: Mr. and Mrs. Woodard Levi Johnson announce the marriage of their daughter, Gertrude, to Mr. Vivian James Rogers on Wednesday, November the twenty-first, nineteen hundred and forty-five, Clinton, North Carolina. Mrs. Rogers is a popular member of the local school faculty and has served in this position for the past several years. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Johnson of Harrell's Store.

Mr. Rogers is the son of Mr. W.

K. Rogers of near Corinth church, Rose Hill, N. C.
