Announce Engagement

Mr. and Mrs. Hampton D. Williams of Kenansville announce the engagement of their foster daughter, Susie Burdette Lee of Kenansville and Charleston, S. C., to Hiram Johnson Casebolt, U. S. N. son of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Casebolt of Scotoville, Ohio. The wedding will take place in a private ceremony in Kenansville on April 20 with the Reverend Thomas Lee of Effland, N. C. father of the bride-elect, officiating.

O. E. S. Meets

On Thursday, March 28th, at a Special Meeting of Kenansville Chapter Number 215, O. E. S., in a very impressive ceremony, Mrs. Caroline Jerritt Strang and Misses Janie Bell and Mary Alice Black more were received into the order. During the ceremony, Mrs. Thelma Stroud, soloist, and Mrs. Edna Earle Brinson, pianist, rendered music which was very appropriate for the occasion.

A public installation of officers will be held for this Chapter on Tuesday, April 9th, at 8:00 P. M. Installing officers will be Dr. G. V. Gooding and Mrs. Pearl McGowen.

Mrs. M. F. Allen Hostess To Her Bridge Club

On Monday evening, Mrs. M. F. Allen entertained the members of her bridge club and one extra table. Mrs. Allen used lovely arrangements of dogwood and other Spring flowers throughout her rooms. When scores were tallied Mrs. J. B. Wallace was awarded high score for club members and Miss Martha Pickett for visitors. Mrs. M. F. Allen, Sr., honor guest, was awarded a gift. The hostess served a delicious salad course with coffee.

Mrs. Wallace Entertains Kontract Klub

Mrs. J. B. Wallace entertained the members of her Kontract Klub on last Wednesday evening. Lovely bowls of irises and other Spring flowers were used in her living room. At the end of play, high score for club members was awarded Mrs. N. B. Boney and for visitors, Mrs. D. H. McKay. The hostess served ice cream with chocolate syrup and cookies.

Miscellaneous Shower

Circles No. 1 and 2, of Grove Presbyterian Church on last Wednesday night in the Manse, entertained at a miscellaneous shower honoring Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lanier. Mr. Lanier has recently been discharged from the Navy. When the guests arrived, a basket full of gifts was presented to the bride and groom. Mrs. J. G. Morrison served punch, wafers and peanuts.

P. T. A. Meets

The PTA held its regular meeting Monday night with Mrs. N. B. Boney, President, presiding. Mrs. Louise Mitchell was chairman of the program on music and art with Misses Fannie Lewis and Elizabeth Taylor as co-chairmen. Miss

Lewis' toy band gave several selections. Miss Taylor had an exhibit of drawings, girl scouts raffia work and also displayed a number of articles made by the school children for Junior Ired Cross work. Mrs. Outlaw's fifth grade, dressed in appropriate spring costumes, gave a spring dance. Mrs. Clarence Murphy, retiring treasurer, was given a rising vote of thanks for her splendid services for the past year.

Mrs. Boney Hostess To Sewing Club

Mrs. N. B. Boney was hostess to the BMG Sewing Club Tuesday afternoon. There were eight members present and Miss Lula Hinson and Mrs. Bess Hines were guests for the occasion. Lovely arrangements of spring flowers were used with spirea and poppies predominating. After the usual sewing bee, Mrs. Boney, assisted by her daughter, Janet, and Mrs. Perry Dobson served fruit salad and coffee.

Behind Your Bonds Lies the Might of America

COTTON TEXTILES

The cotton-textile industry has spearheaded factory growth in North Carolina from 1880 to the present. Centered in the Piedmont area, coarse yarns were spun at first but now medium and fine textures are turned out. It is a 50 million dollar business. All the world will need these products which will add to the Nation's wealth to back the Savings Bonds you buy.
