Kenansville Girl Scouts Entertained by BFG Girls

The B. F. Grady Girl Scouts entertained the Kenansville troop last Tuesday afternoon at the B. F. Grady School. The reception committee met the scouts in the school yard and ushered them into the hall which was decorated with iris and other Spring flowers. The punch bowl was surrounded with flowers, and the hostesses served punch, cookies and open faced sandwiches. After refreshments, the Kenansville troop showered Mrs. Amos Brinson with many miscellaneous gifts. The guests were then invited into the auditorium for a picture show. The B. F. Grady Scout Leader, Mrs. Amos Brinson, was assisted by Miss Lena Chesnut and Mrs. E. D. Edgerton in entertaining the group.

Mrs. N. B. Boney, Scout Leader, Mesdames Roy Brinson and I. C. Burch took the Kenansville troop over to the B. F. Grady school.

Mrs. Woodrow Taylor, a recent bride, was remembered with a gift. The hostess served a sweet course with hot coffee and nuts.

Stunt Night Successful

Stunt night at the Kenansville High School last Friday night was quite a success. The auditorium was packed and stunts performed by each of the grades were very amusing and well presented. Much interest was shown in the various contests. Mrs. Hallie Daugtry and Mr. Paul Ingram were the winners in the tacky contest; Mrs. Daugtry imitating a very old woman and Mr. Ingram, a babe in swaddling clothes. The baby contest was well represented by Kenansville's many and attractive children and babies. In the contest group from one to three years, little Jerry Brown and little Miss Mary Mitchell were winners. In the group from three to six years, Master James Brinson and Miss Sylvia Gooding took the honors. In the high school popularity contest, Miss Cornelia Quinn was winner. According to reports the school made quite a bit of money to pay for school equipment.

Joint Hostesses At Birthday Party

Misses Betty Whitfield and Theo Hollingsworth were joint hostesses on Saturday evening at the Club building, the occasion being to celebrate their birthdays which are but a few days apart. The club was most attractive with arrangements of spring flowers and a pretty birthday cake centered one of the tables. When the gifts were opened, the young folks enjoyed games and dancing. The mothers of the honorees served birthday cake and ice cream to the twenty guests.
