Worship Organize New Circle

The Good Samaritan Circle of the Warsaw Baptist Church held its first meeting on Monday afternoon, April 1, at the home of Mrs. F. F. Giddens. Mrs. Giddens led the devotional and used for her discussion the first chapter of the Bible Study Book, "The School of Obedience," closing with prayer.

The program topic was "The Need for a New World," and "Signs of Spiritual Awakening." This was discussed by Mesdames L. C. Boone, Ira Ezzell, Jr., J. B. Herring and G. S. Best.

During the business session the circle was named and the following officers were elected; Leader, Mrs. G. S. Best; Assistant Leader, Mrs. F. F. Giddens; Secretary and Treasurer, Mrs. Delaney Cottle; Assistant Secretary, Mrs. Eddie Blackburn; Program Chairman, Mrs. Ira Ezzell, Jr.; Community Missions Chairman, Mrs. J. B. Herring.

The charter members other than the above were Mesdames Hattie Chambers, Henry Ezzell, J. F. Ketchides, D. J. Blackburn, Ira Ezzell, Sr., and L. C. Boone.

The Circle will meet on Monday after each 3rd Sunday.

Mrs. Berry Hostess To Bridge Club

Mrs. Paul Berry entertained her Bridge Club Thursday afternoon at her home on Pine Street. The home was decorated with artistic placement of spring flowers, spirea and iris predominating. Two tables were in play. Mrs. L. S. White scored high, receiving individual guest towels and Mrs. Ralph Best received a kitchen towel for low award. The hostess served iced drinks upon arrival of the guests and after scores were tallied served delicious ice cream and homemade pineapple cake.

Mrs. Potter Honors House Guest

Mrs. Paul Potter delightfully entertained at four tables of bridge Wednesday afternoon at her home when she honored her sister-in-law, Miss Mary Potter of Cowpen, S. C., who was her house guest. The living and dining rooms were arranged with lovely arrangements of spring flowers.

After the guests found their places by means of novelty handmade tallies, the hostess served refreshing coca colas and toasted nuts, and at the conclusion of the games, Mrs. H. L. Stevens, Jr. received novelty table mats for scoring high, Mrs. J. P. Harmon was presented novelty soap for second high, and Mrs. Ralph Best scored low to receive Cara Nome perfume. Miss Potter was remembered with a pair of nylon hose.

Mrs. Potter was assisted by Mesdames J. A. Rackley and Mabel Bowen in serving a dainty chicken salad course with sandwiches, pecan rolls and tea to her guests.
