Mrs. Sheffield Entertains

One of the loveliest social affairs of the season was on Friday afternoon when Mrs. B. C. Sheffield, Sr., received at a tea in the home of Mrs. Clarence J. Brown on Hill St., honoring her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Charlie Sheffield, who before her recent marriage was Miss Emma Herring, and Mrs. B. C. Sheffield, Jr., nee Miss Jane Williams, of Clinton.

The spacious Brown home was ensuite and attractively decorated with early summer flowers. Guests were met at the door by Mrs. Brown and Mrs. Warren A. Smith, who introduced them to the receiving line composed of Mrs. Sheffield, Sr., Mrs. Charlie Sheffield, Mrs. B. C. Sheffield, Jr., and her mother, Mrs. J. B. Williams, Sr., of Clinton, Mrs. Ed Hines, who before her recent marriage was Miss Louise Oakes, and Mrs. Eugene H. Clark, wife of the Presbyterian pastor, a new comer to Warsaw. Lovely and artistic arrangements of gladioli and poppies were used in the receiving rooms.

Mrs. L. B. Hule showed the way to the dining room, which was decorated with bowls of roses. Here they were met by Mrs. W. P. Bridgers. Seated at either end of the lace covered table, which was centered with a gorgeous arrangement of varicolored sweetpeas and flanked by burning green tapers, was Mrs. Henry L. Stevens, Jr., and Mrs. Rivers D. Johnson, who served dainty bridal ices and cakes. Assisting in serving were Mesdames J. C. Page, W. M. Buck and James L. Kitchin, who passed lily mints and nuts. Mesdames J. M. Peirce, George Bennett and L. S. Whittle also aided in the serving.

In the music room, which was enhanced with roses and pink peonies on the registration table, where the guests were asked to register by Mrs. J. P. Harmon, Mrs. J. E. Williams at the piano and Misses Janice Draughon and Mae Brock, rendered instrumental selections throughout the evening. They were also assisted by Misses Anne Hule and Jean Newkirk at the piano.
