GODWIN - PRIDGEN VOWS SPOKEN IN WARSAW METHODIST CHURCH

Double Ring Service Unites Emma Frances Pridgen, Samuel E. Godwin

Warsaw — Miss Emma Frances Pridgen, daughter of Mrs. Katherine S. Pridgen and the late Mr. Harrison E. Pridgen, Sr., of Warsaw and Samuel E. Godwin, son of Mrs. E. J. Godwin and the late Mr. Godwin of Dunn, were united in marriage in a twilight ceremony on June 5th at the Warsaw Methodist Church, the Rev. A. M. Williams officiating at the double ring ceremony.

Organist Jack Middleton rendered a program of nuptial music including: "Liebestraum" by Liszt, MacDowell's "To a Wild Rose", Schubert's "Cradle Song", Verdi's "Ah, I have Signed to Rest Me", and "Nocturne" by Chopin. The Bridal Chorus from Wagner's "Lohengrin" was used for the professional and Mendelssohn's "Wedding March" for the recessional. "Song to the Evening Star" by Wagner was played while the vows were pledged. Miss Nell Bowden, soloist, sang "Because" and "I Love You Truly", accompanied by Mrs. J. E. Williams, pianist.

The bride entered the church on the arm of her brother, Harry E. Pridgen, who gave her in marriage. Her gown of slipper satin fashioned with a sweetheart neckline, leg O'mutton sleeves coming to a calla point over the hands and a full skirt ending in a circular train. She wore a fingertip veil of bridal illusion which was held in place by a satin cap edged with heirloom rosepoint lace. She carried a white prayer book showered with white spray Orchids and feverfew. Her only ornament was a strand of pearls, gift from the bridegroom.

Miss Hannah L. Pridgen, sister of the bride, was her maid of honor. She wore a gown of pink net over taffeta designed with a tight bodice, full skirt, and a sequin Juliet cap of matching material with shoulder length veil. She carried an arm bouquet of pink roses tied with a lavender ribbon.

The bridegroom had as his best man, his brother, Oliver W. Godwin, of Dunn. Ushers were: Travis S. Vick of Orlando, Fla., O. W. Godwin, Jr., and Thomas Wilson, both of Dunn and Andrew Thomas Wrench of Wilmington.

Mrs. Pridgen, the bride's mother, and Mrs. Godwin, mother of the bridegroom, wore dresses of black with corsages of white roses.

Following the ceremony the mother of the bride entertained at a reception at her home on Hill Street. Mrs. G. P. Pridgen and Miss Garnette Godwin greeted the guests at the door and Mrs. T. S. Vick introduced them to the receiving line which was composed of the bridal party and mothers of the bride and groom. The bride's table was covered

Mrs. W. D. Hunter, underwent an operation in the Goldsboro Hospital last week and is getting along as well as could be expected.
