Says "Good Citizen" Is "Finest Title"

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J.—How business leaders may "attain the finest title which can be bestowed in a Republic, that of 'Good Citizen,'" was suggested here by W. Gibson Carey, Jr., president of The Yale & Towne Manufacturing Company, and one-time president of the U. S. Chamber of Commerce. Speaking on "Top Management Responsibilities" in the keynote address opening the first "full peace production and distribution" convention of 2,000 members of the American Supply & Machinery Manufacturers Association, Inc., and related national distributors associations, Mr. Carey said, "The business executives of the nation, have much more to do than run our businesses effectively and in the public interest. . . . They must assume greater responsibilities in the fields of education, philanthropy and religion. . . . It is clear that an executive who performs his business function effectively serves society well, and yet surely he cannot be satisfied unless he also gives of himself in the development of youth, in the alleviation of suffering, and in the religion of his choice." Mr. Carey also urged business executives to increase the influence of "the experienced, hard-headed viewpoint of business in government." For example, Mr. Carey asked executives if they are supporting "actively and aggressively" those representatives in Congress who are approaching the masses of present labor legislation from the basic American viewpoint that all men must stand equal before the law.

Mobile Recruiting Unit
To Tour Southern States
A Mobile Recruiting Unit is being constructed at Pope Field, N.

C., to be used in a tour of the Southern States in order to acquaint the public with the working of air-borne units of the Army. The mobile unit will carry a graphic picture of what the Air Corps offers to young men in the way of education and learning a trade. The nose and fuselage of a CG-15 glider will be mounted on a 25-foot flat bed trailer. A 75 MM. Gun will be loaded inside the glider. Another mobile display will be a technical machine exhibit comprising a machine shop complete in every detail.

23-foot van is being fitted with a display of equipment used in radio communication, radar detection and electronic navigation. The latter is scheduled to include "Loran" gear, a radio long range navigation device which proved so trustworthy to pilots on patrol from tiny island bases in the Pacific covering great stretches of ocean with no visible landmarks to guide them. A complete instrument panel will also be displayed along with a novel arrangement of aircraft instrument check equipment. An advance party will precede the mobile unit to complete all arrangements incidental to the tour. The government, though bound by law to support flue-cured tobacco prices at 90 per cent of parity, has set up no machinery for the actual purchase of leaf should prices fall below the floor. The white-fringed beetle has caused widespread damage and a quarantine of many commodities and materials in 15 Eastern Carolina counties.

CAN EAT HEARTILY NOW, AND THANKS RETONGA

promptly and I don't know when I have felt better. I now work hard on my farm, eat heartily and sleep soundly. Gas pains are relieved, and I no longer need strong laxatives like I did for years before taking Retonga. It is the only medicine that gave me the relief I wanted.

"The tortures of nervous indigestion kept me feeling miserably nearly every waking hour, but Retonga soon got me to feeling like a different man," gratefully states Mr. L. M. Blackwell, respected farm owner of Route 2, Cumberland Furnace, Tenn. "Every mouthfull I ate seemed to sour in my stomach and I dreaded even going to the table," stated Mr. Blackwell. "I can hardly remember the time when I did not have attacks of indigestion, and I can certainly sympathize with other sufferers. I felt so restless it seemed like I could never get a good night's sleep. Constipation gave me a great deal of trouble and I was forced to take strong laxatives. I suffered from gas pains in my stomach which often felt like they would cut off my breath.

"Retonga brought me relief

Retonga is intended to relieve distress due to insufficient flow of digestive juices in the stomach, loss of appetite, Vitamin B-1 deficiency and constipation. There is only one Retonga; accept no substitute. Retonga may be obtained at the Kenansville Drug Store in Kenansville or at the Warsaw Drug Co., in Warsaw (Adv.)
