James S. Clark Endorses State Health Program

James H. Clark, of Elizabethtown, chairman of the Medical Care Commission, today strongly endorsed the proposed State-Wide Good Health Plan and asserted that the program in its entirety is within North Carolina's financial reach. Clark further asserted, "I have given serious thought about whether or not North Carolina is able to undertake this additional burden of service to its people at this time, and I have arrived at the conclusion that the whole program should be undertaken now. I, therefore, endorse the entire program."

Crooked Seams

CHICAGO — Crooked stocking seams are a sign of untidiness and detract from an office girl's personality. Mrs. Alberta Greene Redenbaugh, director of personal-ity course for employees of Schenley Distillers Corporation, tells Evelyn Rothas, a Chicago stenographer. More than 1,200 of the company's employees have received expert instruction from Mrs. Redenbaugh on how to develop their personalities to attain success in the business world. Mrs. Redenbaugh has had more than 20 years of experience as a business executive and women's counselor.
