Beulaville Bugle

By BOB

(Being Tooted This Week By SEABEE "RUBBERLEGS" HAYWORTH)

Well, as Big Hearted Bob has put me on the PERVERBAL SPOT to write this week's Bugle (I reckon that's the way you spell it) - Bob, you should have sent me your BOOKSHUNARY, as you knew my EDDICATION has been sadly neglected, due to a YEN I had some 20 or more years ago to join up with a great show called "DEMOREST STOCK CO" owned by a fine old gentleman, whom I think of to this day as one of the finest and greatest showmen ever lived, and I might add - a very hard working man. - No, folks, not Bob, Jr. It was Bob, Sr. As Bob's Dad often made the old time-worn remark - that Bobbie, as he called him, "could lay right down side of work and go to sleep."

First, Dear Readers, if there is anything in this column that does sound sensible, it is mere a CO-INCIDENCE - As I imagine you people who once saw me there at the High School Auditorium appearing in a "Red Cross Drive" play with our good friends, Bob and Marge and my fine wife and buddy. Also little Robert Craft lending a very timely hand. - Will readily admit I am a Perfect IDIOT, I studied to be an Idiot for 20 years on the stage. Now here I am running a Picture Show. You really don't have to be crazy or an idiot to run a picture show, but IT SURE DOES HELP - If you AINT NUTS when you first start, it only takes a few months to go that way.

As this is my first column and (DARN THAT GUY, BOB) my last, I will write a bunch of time-worn gags and a few puns on the Good Folks I know here, there and over Duplin County. Tho if any libel suits occur, they are, of course to be against BOB (BUGLE) DEMOREST, as he is REALLY the Editor of this scandal sheet - I am glad to note Bob at last has his new gas heaters installed as it's tough to be getting OLD and COLD - (Don't get too near them heaters

Mrs. J. L. Powers of Benson is guest of her daughter, Mrs. Orzo Thigpen. Mr. Powers spent Monday here.

Mrs. Perry James, Mrs. John King and daughter of Durham spent several days with the former sister, Mrs. Zollie Batchelor.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Quinn have returned from New Orleans, La., where they attended the Ga.-Car. Sugar Bowl game.

Miss Geraldine Carr and Jesse Evans of Kinston visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Evans on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Campbell spent the week end in Goldsboro.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Mercer were here from Wilmington to spend the week end.

Mrs. G. W. Kennedy and Kenneth Lanier visited Wallace on Wednesday.

Demorest, I can smell HAM, burning way over here).

Well folks we had some terrible weather of late - Had a TURBULE windstorm here last week, wind blowed so hard, it BLOWED STANLEY COOMBS NOSE -- First time its been blowed in 6 months - (Boy, That's LOUSY HAYWORTH, try another one).

I seen Bob Grady, Ye Editor - recently during Xmas or right after New Year's Eve - I noted some specks on his nose that looked like a pin or cat scratch - I asked him, "Bob, what caused those spots on your nose?" Grady spoke up very indignantly - "Why, er-uh-er-er-er Glasses. I said "Glasses of What?" (Plenty of time Folks to think it over, as this is a weekly paper).

Our old friend SKUNKTON TEE-TER got his whiskers caught in the fly wheel of his corn sheller last week. He was KILLED TUESDAY and DIED FRIDAY.

I recall one day there was a big crowd of whittlers, and spitters setting around Avon's Service Station. This was during gasoline rationing (which is a time I want to forget). Anyway, it was back in them dark days. A traveling man feller selling 16 cylinder Cadillac Drove up to the gas pump and asked "How far is it to Pink Hill?" Avon replied, "10 miles" The man said "Give me 20 gallons of gas and a quart of oil" and he drove off -

A little later another traveling salesman (seems they was the only ones had gas tickets them days) drove up in a Pontiac and asked, "How far is it to the Pink Hill Licker Store?" The same reply was given "10 miles". He says, "Well, give me 10 gallons of gas and 2 quarts of oil," and he drove away towards Pink Hill -- Bout that time we all heered a great Commotion up at Archie Lanier's Filling Station - We run up there and here was Flavius Williamson, pulled up with a old Model A (his electric work truck), it was steaming and smoking. He yelled out, "How fur a piece is it to Pink Hill?" Archie yelled back, "10 miles" -- Flavius says -- "Well, give me 20 gallons of water and hold this D--- thing til I get in it" ---

I hear that Bob and Marge's man of all work, "Dynamite" was setting on a barrel of Turpentine in front of my good friend I. J. Sandlin's store and someone yelled there was a game of PEEP or AFRICAN DICE being played. "Dynamite" went to jump off the barrel but slipped and fell in - he was last seen going through Fayetteville on the DOUBLE.

Corn Whiskey has gone up to 50 cents a gallon or two gallons for a half a dollar. -- We got some pretty good corn crops in these parts - We expect about 40 gallons to the acre.

Well, neighbors, this could go on forever, but I've ALWAYS been a man of FEW WORDS - And I just can't think of anything to say, of course I could mention the Model Theatre (how he loves them words) Backwards, it spells LEDOM (What that mean Waffle Bottom? - You look it up - When I see the word "BACKWARDS" I just can't resist telling you folks this one --

It was back when Bob was still in his tent - And at that time the Charlotte Picture Exchanges were having to use some very green and poor help - Especially the Film Inspectors - Anyway, that's Bob's story, and I'm stuck with it. It seems that Bob was running a very Super-Dooper TIM MCCOY Western Thriller - And the Film Inspector or whom had presumably Inspected and checked this picture, and put the wrong reel band on the reels. As the picture was shown, it seems McCoy got out of jail O. K., but never did show where he got into jail - One of Bob's loyal patrons (of which he has many, me too, thank the Lord) came out by the booth and says "Bob, I've seen that picture two times tonight, and I see how Tim got out of jail, but doggone it, I never seen what or why he got in jail, how come?" Bob says, "Well they mixed up the reel bands on me, so in the mess I left the middle reel out - but you go back in and I'll run it all over - The patron accepted Bob's offer and this time Bob put the middle reel in the machine, thinking it was O.K. and ready to run, RIGHT - but it hadn't been rewound, but Bob RUN it - Yes folks, you guessed it, Backwards and upside down - Tho as Demorest puts it, and me being a Picture Machine Operator

????? Have no reason to doubt him, of course when I did the same thing here, I told patrons the same thing, Only I didn't lie about it - some fun eh Bob?

PATRONS NOTE: Folks, this is in Fun. As it's HISTORY now, but based on actual facts that did happen. As I mentioned before, up to 5 years ago, neither one of us, Bob or I, knew what a Picture Machine or Picture Show looked like, as we were both raised in the show business of the LIVING STAGE (thank God, there's still a few of them good real shows around the country and someday will be more).

But seriously folks, I think a lot of this guy, Bob Demorest, as we were kids together, on his father's Dramatic Stage Show. We've had a lot of fun as well as heartaches knowing each other all these many years -- When we were about 14 years old, we wanted to be acrobats. His Dad owned a beautiful Big Tent Theatre, which had many poles and nice ropes in it. We, Bob and I, would get on opposite sides of the big tent and swing back and forth on the ropes, and imagine ourselves trapeze artists making flying leaps and catches, etc. One day his Dad walked in unexpected and caught us - Well, the price of rope and tents were (even in those days) brought forth a small atomic bomb. -- Press censorship forbids just the expression he used, but the impression he left on the seats of Bob's and my breeches stayed for a long while -- but again I say, a finer old man and better comedian never lived than Bob Demorest, Sr. Whatever I know of show business, I feel I owe it to him.

I could tell you some funny happenings on Marge and Bob - but I don't want to give them too much publicity, as it might help his business and take some of the PLAYHOUSE, TENTS away. Oh, excuse me folks, I swear I didn't mean to let that slip out - Imagine me writing a column for the Model Theatre manager, and mentioning a thing like MY OWN TENT THEATRE, Hayworth, manager, "Go easy Pardner or thar might be Dirty work at the old cross-roads."

I heered Bob wrote a new song entitled "Since Lenoir County Went Dry, My Wife Makes Me Lick-Her."

And this my friends, brings to an end another BUGLE BLAST of NONSENSE. It has given you a chuckle or two, I am glad. If not, blame Bob -- Cause "I Aint Got a Dab of Sense."

Seabee Hayworth.
P. S. Memento -- Who fired that shot?

P. S. No. 2 -- Bob and Marge, Me and Marion are going to put on another Stage Play soon called "Over the Hills to the Poorhouse," assisted by the Film Salesman.

NEXT WEEK IT'S YOUR TURN "WHISTLE-BRECKERS"
