TOBACCO OIL CURERS WITH THE HORIZOMATIC DRAFT

When you see the new FHECO Tobacco Curers notice the advantages they have over anything you ever saw.

- 1st. Four burners to each barn, which means all the heat you want without red spots on burners or flues.
- 2nd. Made of cast iron for long life.
- 3rd. Each burner has a separate adjustment to give an even temperature over entire barn.
- 4th. No canopies in the Way.
- 5th. By using four FHECO Burners to each barn you do not have to elevate the flues, therefore, the heat stays in the barn and does not escape through the smoke stack.
- 6th. No smoke or carbon to bother.
- 7th. Simplest Burners ever made.
- 8th. Horizomatic draft for economy.
- 9th. No flooding. No smoke or fire in the barn.
- 10th. Four burners for the price of one or two.
