iss Ritchie Becomes The Bride Of Mr. Navah Lee Wiggs Wednesday

the Clara Ellen Ritchie, daugh-of the late Mr. and Mrs. R. D. ats of Vale, and Navah Lee D Wiggs, son of Mr. and Mrs. L Wiggs of Warsaw, N. C. and ch. S.C., were married day afternoon at 5:30 in a nony of charm and simplicity Sardis Lutheran church, near school.

W. J. Roof, pettor of the officiated, using the double reremony. The vows were in before a background of nd floor baskets of gladioad two seven-branched can-holding white tapers. Bows te satin ribbon marked the for relatives and special A program of wedding music was

d by Miss Lottle Hood, piist, and Miss Mary Lea Whisnant ph Johnson, vocalists. Miss d played "Indian Love Call," termezzo," "O Promise Me," and Ahl Sweet Mystery of Life." Miss ng the ceremony Miss Hood "Liebestraum," and "The and Mrs. Wiggs will s Prayer," as the banadiation d Mr. Johnson sang "Because." ord's Prayer," as the benediction. traditional wedding marches used for the processional and sional. Given in marriage by her cousin. Mayor E. Carr Heavner of Lincolnm, the bride wore a wedding gown ed with fitted chiffon bodsweetheart neckline outlined seed pearls, long sleeves comto a point at the hands, and all length net skirt. The French n fingertip length veil was ched to a seed pearl coronet. carried a white prayer book ered with gardenias. Her only nt was a locket, which was mly heirloom.

iss Jo Anne Ritchie, cousin of bride, was maid of honor. She e a dress of powder blue silk ib and jersey, fashioned similarly to that of the bride's, and a corte of rosebu maids were Mrs. Marshall ttain and Miss Margaret Wray. y wore pink marquisette gowns. ed after that of the bride's. d shoulder corsages of rosebuds Little Carolyn Whisnant, daugher of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Whiswas flower girl. She was ressed in white. Howard Whisnant was the bridem's best man. rs included Frank Heavner and Hoke Heavner, of Lincolnton. dred guests were received during Boyce Ritchie of Vale, squain of the bride and Waxren Rood, also of Vale.

Honorary attendants, friends and former members of the Banoak school faculty, included Misses Lois Coon, Claudia Tharpe, Margaret Hoover, Mildred Allen, Bertie Asherbranner, Cletus Speagle, Martha Wells and Mesdames Grace Miller, Tom Maxwell, Clarence Rhoney, Harry M. Arndt and Marshall S. Brittain.

Mrs. Wiggs attended Appalachian State Teachers college, Boone, and a graduate of Lenoir Rhyne college. For the last several years she has been a member of the Banoak school faculty.

The bridegroom attended Bailey High School and has served for seven years with the United States Army. At present he is located at the Myrtle Beach army air base, being a sergeant specialist in electronics. He served for sixteen months in the Pacific theatre with the Twentieth Air Force.

Heavner. For travel, the bride changed into a street suit.

Reception Held

Following the wedding Mr. and Mrs. Frank Heavner, Mr. and Mrs. E. Carr Heavner and the faculty of the Banoak High School entertained at the cake cutting and reception at the home of the bride.

Potted plants and cut flowers were a Training Union Study Course was used for decorations. conducted in the Beulaville Bap-The receiving line was composed tist Church, Rev. A. L. Brown, the of the hosts and members of the pastor, and the Church as a whole, wedding party. Miss Lillian Lefev was well pleased with the results. ers and Mrs. John Broome presi Instructive courses were taught ded at the register. Mrs. Ted Ritch by Rev. and Mrs. Beck of Warsaw ie and Miss Eunice Wray directed There was an average attendance the guests to the gift room, where of 44 for the five nights. Mrs. Clarence Rhoney and Mrs. On Sunday night, Feb. 2, two new Howard Whisnant were in charge Miss Hood presented a program Junior and Intermediate officers of music during the reception.

were installed in a beautiful and The dining room table was cov impressive installation service. ered with a lace cloth and centered Rev. N. E. Gresham, pastor of with a three-tiered wedding cake the Island Creek Baptist Church banked with ivy. Crystal candle announced that a Training Union holders epported white tapers. Afwas organized in his church on Feb. ter the traditional cutting of the first piece of cake by the bride and groom, Mrs. A. B. Wray and Mrs. W. L. Lefevers served the cake. Circles Meet Ice cream, molded in the form of wedding bells, nuts and mints were served by Mrs. Frank Heavner and Methodist Circle No. 1 met Tuesday Mrs. E. C. Heavner. Mrs. Grace afternoon in the home of Mrs. A. M. Miller and Miss Cletus Speagle ser-Williams with 11 present and Mrs. ved punch. Approximately a hun-J. Powell presiding. Mrs. C. B.

Best gave the devotional and Mrs. Powell presented the program. The hostess served dainty sandwiches, cookies and Russian tea.

JONES, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. Gordon Jones of Wallace, whose engagement to Joseph Grayson Duer, son of Mr and Mrs. M. J. Duer of Exmore.

Va., is announced by her parents. The wedding will take

The Rev. Gilmer Beck, Associational Missionary for the Eastern Baptist Association, reports place in April.

B. T. U. News

Circle No. 2 met Wednesday night with Mrs. J. C. Thompson and 8 present. Mrs. Thompson preided and Mrs O J Sutton gav

MRS. JOAN IL. MOL before her marriage January 15 in Rose Hill was Miss India Huntington Régister, daughter of Mrs. Sloan Register and the late Mr. Register of Rose Hill. Mr. Moore is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Moore of Clinton.

Warsaw News Of Interest To Every One

oll for the fifth music month in Warsaw: Thelma Jenkins, Elizathe evening. Goodbyes were said beth West, Benny Hobbs, Betty and to Mrs. Ben Shidal and Mrs. A. B. Mary Ellis West and Mildred Ben-

Mrs. Smith Is Hostess To Club

Mrs. Brodus Smith entertained that during the week of Jan. 26-31, her bridge club on Thursday afternoon at her home on Pollock St.

Potted plants decorated the room where two tables were in play. Mrs. Ed Strickland, Jr., scored high and was presented a guest towel. The hostess served dainty sandwiches and coca colas to her guests.

unions were organized and the Junior and Intermediate officers Mrs. Parker Is Home From Durham

> Friends of Mrs. H .A. Parker of Bowden, will be interested to learn that she has returned to her home from Durham, where she underwent treatment at Duke Hospital. Her daughter, Mrs. Douglas Fussell, of Greensboro, spent the week end with her.

Personals

Misses Clydia Strickland and Elizabeth West visited relatives in Dunn Tuesday and Wednesday. Miss Lyda West, who is visiting her niece, Mrs. Edgar Pollock, is with a severe cold.

Mrs. George Lloyd of Bowden is visiting her daughter, Mrs. John

Mrs. A. J. Strickland and Miss

Mrs. Edgar Pollock entertained at a party Sunday afternoon honoring her son, Deems, who celebra-

Games were enjoyed and the prize for pinning the tail on the donkey went to Eddie Britt. After the children were served birthday cake, ice cream and favor suckers, Mr. Pollock took the boys to the country, where they enjoyed a hike

Accepts Church

At Masonboro

Verna Strickland shopped in Raleigh Wednesday.

Robinson in McAllen, Texas.

Honored On

Ninth Birthday

ted his ninth birthday.

Miss Wiggs To Become Bride

Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Wiggs, of Warsaw, os the engagement of their daughte Many Kathlass, of Weakington, D. C. ir, Marvin Charles Genachi, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dell Gonnchi, of Bennett, Nebrasha, No wedding date has been set.

Miss Kerr To Wed Mr. Sheffield

Mr. Langdon Chevis Kerr, Sr., requests the honor of your presence at the marriage of his daughter, Dorothy, to Mr. Edwin Lewis Sheffield, Friday, the twenty-first of February at six o'clock, Saint Paul's Episcopal Church, Clinton, N. C.

The above invitations have been received by friends in Warsaw, Mr. Sheffield is the son of Mrs. B. C. Sheffield, Sr., and the late Mr. Sheffield, of Warsaw.

Miss Ward Weds Mr. Thomas

Miss Willa Veigh Ward, daugh- Denton High School and a business ter of Mr. and Mrs. John Franklin college in Winston-Salem. For Ward, of Denton, was married to several months prior to her mar-Franklin J. Thomas, Jr., son of Mr. riage, she held a position with the and Mrs. F. J. Thomas, Sr., on Rural Electrification Administra-Friday afternoon, January 31, 19- tion in the Lexington office. 47 at 3:30 o'clock in the Baptist | Mr. Thomas, who is an announparsonage of Lexington, N. C., cer on radio station WBUY in Lexwith the Rev. J. Roy Clifford, pas- ington, spent three and a half years tor, performing the double ring in the Navy. He attended the Uniceremony in the presence of a few versity of North Carolina, speacialrelatives and friends izing in radio work.

The bride wore for her wedding . Immediately after the ceremony, a dressmaker suit of teal blue with the bride and groom left for a which she used black accessories bridal trip to southern Florida and a shoulder corsage of orchids. They will make their home in Lex-Mrs. Thomas is a graduate of ington.

Miss Lloyd Weds Mr. McMillan

In a quiet and simple ceremony, | tions. Mrs. Carter wore a black Miss Stella Estelle Lloyd, was suit with a corsage of white flowers, as did the bride's mother, Mrs. united in marriage with Mr. Wade Morrison McMillan on Friday, Feb-Lloyd.

and Mrs. Carter and the bride and

Forces of Attraction

Unleash 100,000,000 volts ...

and OIL-PLATE Your Engine!

ruary 7, 1947, at 7:00 o'clock in the evening at the home of her sister. Mrs. E. J. Carter at Bowden. and the Rev. G. Van Stephens, pastor of the Warsaw Baptist Church, officiating at the single ring ceremony The living room was banked Japan. Following her discharge in February, 1946, she was employed with pines and the vows spoken between an arch formed of pine and ivy, with seven branched canat the Veterans Hospital in Faydelabra, holding burning bridal etteville, until recently. The groom, the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. McMillan, of Sparta, tapers and baskets of white gladioli and fern on either side.

original model, dressmaker suit

Preceding the ceremony, while S. C., served in the Army and over Bill Bartlett, brother-in-law of the seas in the Pacific. He is at present with the Jefferson Standard bride, lit the candles, Mrs. R. A. Williams dramatically recited, "I Insurance Company in Winston-Salem, where the couple will make Love You Truly."

The bride, attended by her sistheir home. Following the ceremony, a small ter as matron of honor, was given in marriage by her brother, B. D. informal cake cutting and receptwith matching accessories, and hat groom left for a wedding trip to

with shoulder length yell. Her flowers were bridal white carna-Preceding the ceremony Mrs. E.

The bride attended Warsaw High School and was graduated ares' any t can to the delight a sale much rient's. You're being a good donation to cheer from this day on something or other from this day on solid (termity, You're being a beliar, wher American to make a solem from the Dixon High School and wiser American to make a solemn resultation to sitengihers fire future scourity of yourrelf and family. Resolve to put some of your is come regularly into U. S. Savings the Presbyterian Nurses Training School in Charlotte. She enlisted and served as a Second Lieutenant in the Army Nurses Corps for Londs, which pay 54 for every 1 invested in 10 const. two years, with eight months in

U. S. Treasury Departmen

MRS. STACY BRITT

WARSAW EDITOR Subscription Agen Advertising Solicit

Dial 293-6

Planse

Call In Your News

B. Hales entertained the wedding party and slose friends and relatives at an informa dinner party at 5 o'clock at her home near Bow-

. Lewis Ill At Home

Slight improvement was noted the condition of Mrs. Sudie Lew who has been guite ill at her hom

Her daughter, Miss Annie Lewis of Clinton has been with her and her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Robert Lowis tives in Virginia, came home to

Uncle Sam Says

R.N., who has been visiting r den.

nurse her.

- minamentes

One of the fine old American o tores is to begin a new year with a loc of resolutions. Seme we keep Office we make with the intention of area on the constant of the delight of our

the devotionals. The program was presented by Mrs. J. A. Rackley, assisted by Mesdames Q. J. Sutton, Hopton Smith, Jimmy McColman and J. C. Thompson. Mrs. Rackley led a Biblical quiz and the hostess served a frozen fruit salad with cheese straws and coffee

Circle No. 3 was entertained by Mrs. Herbert West at her home and 12 present. This is a new circle, of which Mrs. M. A. Smith is chairman. Mrs. G. P. Pridgen gave the devotional and due to the unusual amount of business there was no program. Mrs. J. K. Rea, from another circle, discussed "Supply Needs and Funds." Various committees were appointed and the hostess served delicious ice cream and cake.

Baptist Meetings

The Woman's Missionary Society met Monday afternoon at the church with 25 present and Mrs. L. O. Williams, presiding. The Geo. Rollins Circle had charge of the program.

The Sunbeams met at the same hour with their leader, Mrs. G. V. Penney. Refreshments were served by the hostesses and host, Anne, Mable Jane and Bill Straugh an. assisted by their mother, Mrs. J. W. Straughan.

The G.As' met with their cospontor, Mrs. E. D. Pollock and Georgia Anne Hopkins Monday afternoon with 20 girls present. The new leader, Mrs. Wilbur Garner directed their work and plans were made for a Valentine party to be held Friday night at the Legion Hut. The hostesses served punch and cookies.

Master Fred Baars, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Baars, str., son of Monday from the Goldsboro Hos-pital, where he was taking treat-ment. His mother remained with him all the time he was there.

"Captain" Willie Blackmore re-turned Monday from Goldsbord Hospital, where he underwant an operation last week. He is getting along as well as can be expected, his friends will be glad to learn.

Returns From Hosp.

Announce Birth

Mr. and Mrs. L. Roy Callah

The Rev. James Blackmore, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Blackmore, of Warsaw, assumed his duties as pastor of the Masonboro Baptist Church, near Wilmington, February 1. He and Mrs. Blackmore are residing in the newly renovated parsonage. Rev. Blackmore, before serving in the Army Chaplain Corps for 3 1-2 years, was pastor of King Baptist Church.

Forces of attraction between positive electricity in clouds and negative electricity in the ground unleash awesome displays of nature's power.

Through control of the force of molecular attraction, a special ingredient of Conoco Non motor oil is actually bonded to working parts of your engine. In fact, so close is this bonding that cylinder walls and other working parts are OIL-PLATER I

And because molecular attraction holds Conoco en-PLATMIC up where it belongs . . . prevents it from all draining down to the crankcase, even overnight . . . you get these benefits:

sides protection during the vital periods when you first start your

- diad protection from corresive when your engine is not
- edded protection from wear that leads to fouling sludge and carbon added amouth, allent miles

That's why you'd be eafer to on. PLAN your engine now ... at Your Conoco Mileage Méréhant's Look for the red triangle. Continental Oil Company

MOTOR OIL