CIRCLE NO. 2

Mrs. W. A. Taylor was hostess Monday evening to Circle No. 2 with Mrs. J. R. Grady presiding. Several business items were discussed after which Mrs. R. C. Wells delivered the program. A social hour was enjoyed at which time the hostess served coffee, home made cookies and cheese straws.

Sewing Club Meets

Mrs. J. E. Jerritt was hostess to members of the sewing club Tuesday afternoon and Miss Lula Hinson was a guest. The usual sewing bee was enjoyed after which the hostess served a delicious chicken salad plate.

Entertains At Four Tables Of Bridge

Mesdames Perry Dobson and C. B. Sitterson were joint hostesses at four tables of bridge on Friday afternoon, the occasion being to celebrate the birthday of Miss Lula Hinson. The home of Mrs. Dobson was most attractively decorated with early spring flowers. After several progressions, Mrs. J. O. Stokes was awarded high score prize and Mrs. C. B. Guthrie was awarded traveling prize. At the end of play, Miss Hinson opened her birthday gifts, which were numerous and lovely. Miss Hinson cut the birthday cake and the hostesses served ice cream and coffee. Several guests were invited in for refreshments.

Johnson - Farrow Ceremony

Miss Mattie Johnson, daughter of Mrs. LeRoy F. Johnson and the late Mr. Johnson of Rose Hill became the bride of Edward Hugh Farrow, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Peyton Farrow of Willard, in a candlelight ceremony on February 1 in the Corinth Baptist Church. The Rev. J. V. Case, pastor of the bride, performed the double ring ceremony. A program of nuptial music was presented by Mrs. Georgia Cox, a sister of the bride, and the newlyweds, Miss Betty Dixon and Miss Dora Dixon, who were bridesmaids. The bride, wearing a gown of white duchess satin fashioned with a fitted bodice, sweetheart neckline and full skirt with long sleeves ending in points over the hands. Her fingertip veil of illusion fell from a cap band of lilies of the valley. She carried a bouquet of white roses centered with orchids showered with white satin ribbons. Mrs. Paul Stephens, sister of the bride, was matron of honor and the bride's only attendant. She wore a gown of waterfall blue faille, a design corresponding with the gown worn by the bride, and her bouquet was of deep pink roses and purple iris. Her headpiece was of ostrich tips. Walter Farrow, of Halifax, attended his brother as best man. Ushers were Sidney Cox of Raleigh, Willie Johnson of Rose Hill, John Farrow and Maurice Farrow of Willard.

Mrs. Johnson, mother of the bride wore black with black and white accessories. The mother of the groom was attired in black. They both wore corsages of white roses. The bride and groom left for a wedding trip to unannounced points, after which they will be at home in Willard. For traveling, the bride wore a two piece wool suit of ice blue with black accessories. She wore a corsage of orchids. Immediately following the rehearsal Friday evening, the bridal party and guests were entertained by the bride's mother at a cake-cutting in her home. Since the announcement of Miss Johnson's engagement, the following have entertained in her honor: Mrs. P. L. Sasser, Mrs. John Davis, Mrs. W. G. Dixon, Mrs. Robert Johnson, Mrs. Albert Wells and Mrs. Joel Barden.
