QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS OF INTEREST TO VETS

Q. Does the name "United States Government life insurance" include "National Service Life Insurance"?
A. No. They are two separate and distinct types. However, both are administered by the VA.

Q. Do the premiums increase as the insured grows older?
A. No.

Q. Are there any restrictions in Government insurance on the type of work I do?
A. No.

Q. For how long can I carry the World War II NSLI that I bought while in service?
A. NSLI is issued originally upon the 5-year level premium term plan, which was extended three years for all policies issued before Jan. 1, 1946. However, veterans have the privilege of conversion after one year from date of issue to permanent plans. The law provides that all level premium term policies shall terminate at the expiration of the term period unless exchanged for permanent policies on or before the expiration date. If term insurance has been converted, it remains in effect as long as the premiums are paid.

AT HOME ON THE FARM With The City Cousin

"What in the world are you doing, Cousin Ulfers?"

I was so amazed, the words hardly came to me. There he was sitting on a big box out in the barn posing for a picture with—of all things—one of his big white hens!
Knowin' how camera-shy this smart old poultryman is, I began to wonder as the photographer waits for the hen to calm down. Pretty soon he gets the bird to stand just so, and then FLASH!!! the bulb goes off, and everybody relaxes except the hen.
Meanwhile I was about to die of curiosity. I didn't know if the hen had just given birth to quadruplets, or hatched out a litter of pig-sons.
"Neither one," Ulfers tells me, "but just wait and see if she isn't 'Miss Slick Chick of 1947!'"
"Miss what?"
"Miss Slick Chick of 1947!" he repeated, "It's a contest, and this picture is gonna win me $500 and a golden egg."
"Sounds easy," I said. But Ulfers assured me his hen had to win out over five million other entries. It seems he had received notice about a contest sponsored by the Poultry and Egg National Board in connection with the World Premiere of the Universal Picture, "The Egg and I."
"No box tops or money," says Ulfers gleefully.
"All you have to do, the instructions say, is to have a picture made of your slickest chick posed with a member of the family, and send an 8 by 10 enlargement along with the owner's name, address, and breed of chicken, to the 'Egg and I' National Committee, of the Poultry and Egg National Board, 308 West Washington St., Chicago 6, Ill., before midnight, March 10."
It went on to say the hen contestants will be judged entirely on charm, personality, and sex appeal

... owners and hens winning in 5 regional contests will be guests of Claudette Colbert and Fred MacMurray at the Premiere... and the five "Slick Chicks" will not only have special "luxury-room quarters" in a palatial hotel, but will also be provided with furnished nests, to be created for their comfort by fashion designer Orry Kelly!
