

Smart Lines Characterize New Chevrolet

Re-styled for the new year, with emphasis on a more massive front end and a smoother sweep to body contours, the new Chevrolet will soon make its debut. New front-end grille and complementing bright work, as well as elimination of the body belt molding, have done much to give the new model an air of greater luxury.

Kenansville Society and Personals

Mrs. Gavin Hostess Notice! To Club

Mrs. Vance B. Gavin was hostess to the members of the Kenansville Kontract Klub on Wednesday evening with an additional table. Mesdames Jimmie McColman and George Penney of Warsaw and Mrs. Margaretta Stafford and Miss Martha Pickett were guests for the occasion. Arrangements of early spring flowers with jonquils predominating were used in the room in which the tables were in play. When scores were totaled Mrs. R. C. Wells was awarded high score for club members and Miss Martha Pickett for visitors. The hostess served delicious Manhattan pudding, pound cake and coffee.

The Kenansville PTA will meet on Monday night at 7:15 in the school auditorium. A health program under the sponsorship of Miss Lela McDonald and Mrs. Glenn Tucker will be given.

Thurs. Card Club

The Thursday afternoon card club met at a dessert bridge with Mrs. J. E. Jerritt. Mrs. C. B. Sitterton was the only visitor. When the guests were seated the hostess served delicious cherry pie topped with whipped cream and coffee. During play nuts and candies were served. The Washington birthday motif was carried out through refreshments and tallies. Mrs. P. J. Dobson was high scorer for the afternoon.

Young People Entertain Rose Hill Group

On Sunday evening the Youth Fellowship group of the churches of Kenansville entertained the young people of the Rose Hill Fellowship group in the Sunday School rooms at 7:30. A program was given by the local members, after which Rev. John M. Cline led in a number of indoor games. Mesdames G. V. Gooding, and Mary Southerland, assisted by Misses Carolyn Williams, Janet Boney and Hilda Brinson served refreshments of block cake, open faced sandwiches in the shape of hatchets and soft drinks. The room was attractively decorated with cherries and other Washington Birthday ideas. About thirty-five guests were present.

Houstons Entertain Bible Class

Mr. and Mrs. Delmus Houston were hosts on Thursday evening to the members of the Monroe Wicker Bible Class at supper. A delicious barbecue supper with individual lemon pies were served to the 17 members present. After the supper Mr. J. L. Williams and

Paul Stephens furnished the group with string music. A most enjoyable time was had by all.

Anne Dail Aids In College Play

When the Senior class and the Chi Pi players of East Carolina Teachers college present John Van Druten's Broadway comedy hit "I Remember Mama" on Feb. 28 and March 1, among those participating will be Anne Dail of Kenansville, who is one of a group in charge of properties for the play.

The tender, delightfully funny play deals with a Norwegian family living in San Francisco and centers around the struggles of Mama to give her children a sense of security. The leads are taken by Martha Jefferson of Fountain and Robert Musselwhite of Greenville.

Auxiliary Meets

The Auxiliary met on Monday afternoon at 3:30 at the manse. Rev. J. G. Morrison finished the intensive study on Isaiah. Mrs. N. B. Boney, president, presided over the business session at which time the nominating committee report was made by the chairman, Mrs. G. V. Gooding. All present officers were reelected as follows: President, Mrs. N. B. Boney; Vice President, Mrs. Caroline Gavin; Secretary, Mrs. J. G. Morrison; Treasurer, Mrs. J. E. Jerritt; Historian, Mrs. A. T. Outlaw. Plans were also discussed for entertaining the Presbyterial on April 8 and 9.

Youth Fellowship Entertains Mrs. Kellersberger

The Young People of the churches of Kenansville entertained at a supper on Friday evening in the Sunday School building of the Presbyterian church honoring Mrs. Julia Skinner Kellersberger. Mrs. G. V. Gooding, chairman, assisted by Mesdames Mary Southerland, D. S. Williamson, N. B. Boney and J. G. Morrison, served a menu consisting of potato salad, boiled ham, hot buttered rolls, pickles, cranberry sauce, deviled eggs and cherry pie. The room was decorated with red cherries and the George Washington motif was carried out in a most attractive manner. After the supper, Mrs. Kellersberger entertained the group with a most interesting talk on her experiences as a missionary and her work in the Laper colonies.
