On Sunday, March 9th., Mr. and Mrs. Roy G. Lanier, of Kenansville, celebrated their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary, as well as each of their birthdays, which were on March 7th. and 8th., with an old fashioned Barbecue Dinner with hot coffee.

Upon a long cloth covered table, placed in the yard at the rear of the residence, were heaped an array of delicious foods consisting of barbecue, together with all the side dishes that goes with barbecue to make it a sumptuous repast; added to the above were a number of beautiful cakes decorated with birthday and wedding felicitations. After the invocation, by Mr. Early Newton, and prior to enjoying the hospitality of the hosts, Mr. Lanier presented his wife a lovely gold band ring, commemorating their anniversary.

W. S. of C. S. Meets

The Kenansville Methodist W. S. of C. S., held its regular meeting Monday evening, at the home of Mrs. W. M. Ingram. About 17 members and guests were present. For the occasion the order of meeting was reversed and the Chairman of Spiritual Life conducted the devotional first, followed by the program on "Children in the Church." Three of our Sunday School children gave talks. Angela Daughtry represented "A Child of the Street," Betty Ingram,

"A Child of the Church," whose parents, however, remain aloof from church and Sunday school, and Sally Newton, "A Child of the Church," whose parents take an active part in all church activities. Their presentations were attractive and well done and were an inspiration to every older person present. A round table discussion on suggestions for improving our Sunday School followed with excellent ideas presented by Mrs. Stokes Westbrook, Mrs. Ingram, Mrs. O. P. Johnson, and Mrs. D. S. Williamson. Mrs. E. A. Newton, president, presided over the business session and among other items of business appointed Miss Mary Lee Sykes as Youth Chairman; Mrs. Stokes Westbrook, Student Chairman; and Mrs. J. H. Daughtry, Secretary of Supply Work. Upon adjournment the hosts, aided by the three youngest guests, served refreshments and the members enjoyed a social hour together.
