

Sportsmen Warning

There's no doubt that hunting and fishing make up a big business, and like other shareholders in enterprise, sportsmen should be careful to protect their investment, says Frank DuFresne of the U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service.

DuFresne offers these words of warning: "Fishing and hunting is a big, really big business. The sportsmen this year is going to spend close to 3 billion dollars for hooks, bullets, gadgets, and vehicles to go places on, for the pleasure of wading the cool riffles of a trout stream; for tramping the open fields with a gun under his arm; for camping and sleeping under the stars.

"It is fitting and proper at this time when sales of hunting and fishing licenses are pyramiding into the stratosphere to post a few

If we don't look out, we mean poorer fishing . . . poorer hunting. "The signs can be simple little things that all of us will understand.

"No game department can hope to keep pace with present accelerating demands.

"Try to understand, to tolerate, to support shorter periods of open season, smaller bag limits, when your game department prescribes them.

"Help conserve this resource from which you get so much pleasure.

"It's your game. Give it a break. From here on there is no more room for free riders: every one of us must help put back as much as we take out."

Acreeage Expected

Although tobacco acreage allotments have been cut slightly below 1946, growers' reports from a sample of over 2,500 tobacco producers indicate that around 809,000 acres or 1.5 per cent more flue-cured tobacco will be set out this year than was harvested in 1946.

Last year, North Carolina flue-cured producers harvested 797,000 acres with an average yield of 1,117 pounds per acre.

The acreage planned for flue-cured tobacco is 30 per cent greater than the 10-year (1935-45) average.

NEW LAW IN BEAUFORT

A new law makes it illegal to flash any artificial light at night for a distance as much as 50 feet from any highway or private driveway in areas of Beaufort County frequented by deer. Possession of firearms accompanying such activity constitutes prima facie evidence of violating the law.

The penalty for violation is set at a minimum fine of $50 for the first offense, plus two-year revocation of the violator's eligibility for a hunting license.

Any one convicted of actually shooting or taking a deer at night with the aid of artificial light or otherwise shall be imprisoned not less than 30 days.

How women and girls may get wanted relief from functional periodic pain

Cardui, many women say, has brought relief from the cramp-like aches and nervous strain of functional periodic distress. Taken like a tonic, it should stimulate appetite, aid digestion, thus help build resistance for the "blues" to come. Started 3 days before "your time", it should help relieve pain due to purely functional periodic causes. Try it!
