Fitz Batts Honored On Last Friday

Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Bostic entertained at dinner Friday evening in honor of their son, Fitz. Sharing honors at the time was the aunt of the honoree, Mrs. Ben Stroud of Kenansville, who was celebrating her birthday also. Guests included members of the family: Mr. and Mrs. Larry Bostic and children, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Bostic and Nancy, Rev. and Mrs. A. L. Brown, Rev. and Mrs. A. R. Brothers of Rockingham, Rev. and Mrs. Hoyt Beck of Warsaw and Ben Stroud of Kenansville.

Weiner Roast For Basketeers

The girls and boys basketball teams of the Beulaville High School were entertained at a weiner roast Tuesday evening. The enjoyable event took place at the Warsaw gym, the weiners being roasted at the open fireplace there. In addition to the teams, several invited guests were present. Miss Mary Lily Rivenbark, coach, and Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Shaw were chaperones.

House Warming For Mrs. Miller

The new home of Mrs. Kate Miller was the scene of an enjoyable gathering Sunday when friends and relatives gathered there for a delicious barbecue and picnic dinner. The occasion also marked the birthdays of her young daughter, Katie Gray, and her brother, George Bostic.

Mrs. Miller had the misfortune to lose her home, all furnishings and clothing by fire on December 26. She had no insurance, but through gifts from friends, etc., of money and labor, she has been able to rebuild and is now occupying her new home.

Beulaville Junior Senior Banquet

The Junior Class of the Beulaville High School entertained the Seniors at an informal banquet in the Jacksonville USO Friday evening, March 28, at 8 o'clock.

They assembled in the reception room where they enjoyed music, rendered by different pianists until they were invited into the recreation hall to find their place cards and to be served.

The recreation hall was beautifully decorated with multi-pastel colors of streamers, balloons and spring flowers. Candles were the only lights used.

The waitresses, tenth grade girls, wore white dresses with tulip shaped aprons of pastel shades. They served fried chicken, green peas, creamed potatoes, tomatoes, salad, rolls, butter, iced tea, and pie. The food was prepared by Coleman's Restaurant.

Toasts were made by several members of the Junior and Senior classes, the faculty, and committees.

At the close the group sang Auld Lang Syne, floors were cleared and dancing was enjoyed. Some of the group attended the movies.
