A number of the famous, battle-tested divisions on duty in Japan and Korea are now accepting the enlistments of hand-picked, keen young men for service in the Far East.

Among these great fighting divisions are such noted units as the First Cavalry Division, now mechanized in Japan; the 6th Infantry Division, on duty in Korea; the 7th Infantry Division, now in Korea; the 24th Infantry Division, known as the "Victory Division," serving in Japan; and the 25th Infantry or "Tropic Lightning Division," also stationed in Japan.

A 3-year enlistment for duty in the Orient will enable you to choose one of these famous divisions—and you can be a part of it, following initial training in the United States! A TRIBUTE TO Henry Ford

Industrialist And Humanitarian

HENRY FORD is dead. That was the news flashed to the four corners of the earth early Wednesday, April 9. One of the really Great Men of Our Times has fallen. Henry Ford belonged to the nobility of the common people. The works of his hands and his head touched the lives of millions of people all over the world. His genius and his mastery of mechanics and organization wrought a revolution in his day. Henry Ford began life in humble circumstances. He started at the bottom, with nothing more than the opportunity that lies before every boy born in Free America. He capitalized on a willingness to work --- to begin at the bottom. On an idea and an ambition he built an industrial empire of huge proportions. He made a fortune, but in so doing he created jobs and business opportunities for millions of his fellowmen. Others shared in his prosperity. Our generation has not seen a finer example of what a good and great man can make of himself and do for his country and his fellowmen. In Peace and in War Henry Ford served his day and his generation well. His examples and his accomplishments, under difficulties, will stand for all time as a monument to his greatness and an inspiration to young Americans. Henry Ford did not believe the Day of Opportunity had passed. He was a man of Faith, Courage, and a believer in hard work. His death removes from the scene of action one of the most dynamic personalities of all time.
