Duplin's 4-H's Did Well At Kinston

From the Duplin County 4-H Beef Calf show held here April 8, the Club members took their calves to Kinston and entered them in the Coastal Plain Fat Stock Show on the 9th and 10th. 104 calves were entered from 11 counties.

Victor Taylor, from Faison, pushed Jack Basden, from Wayne County, close for Grand Champion; however, Jack's calf was a little the best, so Victor was satisfied with the Reserve Champion, which was a Hereford calf weighing 925 pounds. Victor's Reserve Champion sold for 32 cents a pound, bringing him $323.75.

Each County represented in the show was asked to enter 5 of the best calves in the group of 5 contests. Victor and Ray Taylor, Gordon Whaley, Jimmy Wells, and Joe Bass's calves were selected from Duplin. This group won first prize over all other counties in the show. Joe Bass won second on showmanship among the 104 contestants in the show. All of the calves in the show were graded into 4 grades: grade 1 to 3, and all below grade 3.

since April, 1947, marks the 100th year of Methodist Missionary work in China. Mesdames Quinn, Johnson, D. S. Williamson, and Westbrook presented several milestones in our Chinese missionary experience with implications for the future. Mrs. Newton, the president and official delegate, gave a report on the conference March 19 meeting at Grace Church in Wilmington. Other regular business being disposed of, the meeting adjourned to a social hour with Eskimo pies for refreshments.

I've been very busy for the past few weeks, doing my Spring sewing. And this year, I've discovered an attachment called the Stitch Master that has certainly made my work look professional. It's attached right to my machine — and with it I can make invisible-hems and smooth edges, not only for dresses, and clothes — but for new Spring house furnishings.

So far, I've made two new suits for my young daughter... which she tells me the girls call "dreamy"... a new dress for Babs and one for myself, as well as a host of things for my home. And my new miracle attachment has certainly been a help! On necklines, for instance, I've learned how to make a smooth, perfect edge... a skirt hem is no problem at all, anymore — I stitch them right on the machine and with the new Stitch Master the stitches are actually invisible!

It's certainly easy to sew with today's modern equipment, isn't it? My two sons were thrilled with the curtains I made for their bedroom. I found some regular sailcloth... dyed it navy blue—and appliqued bright ships and anchors on it. Then I made spreads to match for their bunk beds. Now the entire room has a nautical look and the boys are proud as punch! New draperies for the living room are next on my list. I've always been afraid to tackle them before—for the fear they'd look home-made. But with my new sewing machine attachment I have no fears at all — for every garment I've made with it, has really looked professional, and I'm making plans for dozens of new furnishings which I can make easily and quickly now!

Duplin held a higher percentage of calves grading number 1 than any other county. Duplin also had the second largest number of calves in the show.

Each calf was sold at auction on Thursday afternoon, April 10. The 104 calves averaged $25.08 a hundred on foot.
