B. M. S. Meets

The Baptist Missionary Society met at the home of Mrs. John Hoxey Monday afternoon. The president, Miss Beulah Martin presided. At the conclusion the hostess served a salad plate with coffee.

Faison Sesame Club Meets

The Sesame Club was honored Wednesday by a visit from the president of this district, Mrs. E. L. Lanier, of Rose Hill, and Mrs. Fussell. Mrs. Lanier gave an interesting talk, after which she installed two new officers, Mrs. W. I. Thompson and Mrs. T. C. Crow, president and secretary, respectively. Mrs. Annie Witherington, much loved president, retired due to ill health. For three years she has served the club most faithfully, our women being willing to follow her leadership in all worthy projects.

Our club recently visited the school where various exhibits of creative art were displayed in each of the grades. The club gives prizes for the best of these exhibits each year.

Perhaps the most outstanding work by the club this past year was in the care of the cemetery which was in a deplorable condition.

Mrs. I. B. Faison has spent many hours directing this work. Miss Elizabeth has acted as treasurer, and the improvement in the looks

Spring Rally Youth Fellowship

The Spring Rally of the Youth Fellowship of the Wilmington Presbytery was attended by a number of young people of the local church Sunday afternoon. After the meeting the group enjoyed a picnic supper. The leader, Mrs. N. F. McColman, accompanied them.

Lions Club Meets

The Lions Club held Ladies' Night Friday evening in the Community Building with Little John Faulkner of Wilson, District Governor of Eastern Carolina, Lions District 31-C as special guest.

The meeting was in charge of president L. D. Groome.

The ladies were extended greetings by C. A. Decker and Mrs. J. B. Stroud responded.

A duet was sung by Misses Dotty Rector and Anne Stroud. Miss Stroud also sang a solo. Miss Betty Ray played their accompaniment.

A talk was made by Mr. Faulkner on the work of the Lions and a delicious supper was served by the Methodist ladies.
