off a tractor while it is in motion is another way to avoid an accident.

TRACTOR OPERATORS ASKED AVOID ACCIDENTS

With 1947 crops now underway, 26,000 farm tractor operators are urged to be on the alert and avoid accidents and not to forget the main safety rule: "just good common sense." You can't afford to gamble loss of limb or life by operating without power-take-off shield in place. Cranking while in gear is another dangerous way of starting a day's work; driving too close to a ditch can hurry a trip to the hospital, and jumping

Ryegrass Stock Seed Ready

The USDA's common ryegrass of 18 million pounds is being offered for immediate sale and will enable farmers to get their seed supply for early planting of their winter cover crop, Joe E. Sloan, chairman of the Duplin County AAA Committee, advised this week. The Government's early sale will give dealers an opportunity to lay in supplies for distribution and aid farmers to increase their 1947-48 plantings, Sloan said. Seed is from the 1946 harvest and will have a total germination of 90% or better and a purity analysis of 98% or better. Distributors interested should contact the local AAA office for details relative to seed requirements and fair prices. Farmers may obtain from their AAA committeemen full information regarding conservation practices payment available in connection with the planting of ryegrass for winter cover.
