

Kenansville Society and Personals

Invitations Are Issued

Mr. and Mrs. George Robert Dail request the honour of your presence at the marriage of their daughter Margaretta Dail Stafford to Mr. Donald Fred Snider Saturday, the thirty-first of May One thousand nine hundred and forty-seven at ten o'clock A. M. Baptist Church Kenansville, North Carolina No invitations are being mailed in town The public is cordially invited.

Announce Birth

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Lewis announce the birth of a son, William Edward Lewis, Jr., on Monday, May 19, 1947 at Parrott's Hospital in Kinston. Mrs. Lewis is the former Miss Hazel Baker of Kenansville.

Honored At Bridge

On Tuesday evening, Mrs. R. C. Wells entertained most charmingly honoring Mrs. Margaretta Stafford, bride elect, at eight tables of desert bridge. Her living and dining room were ensuited with artistic arrangements of mixed spring flowers banking the mantels and the auxiliary tables. The dining room table was centered with a bowl of punch, flanked with roses and stephanotis. Individual nose-gays of roses centered each bridge table where the guests were seated by bridal tallies and were served ice cream and individual bridal cakes, emphasizing a color scheme of pink and white. Punch was served intermittently.

The honoree was presented a corsage of sweet peas. At the conclusion of play, Mrs. L. F. Weeks was awarded a vase and Mrs. D. H. McKay a double deck of cards for scoring high, both of them having totaled the same score. Mrs. J. R. Grady was given a novelty thermometer for taking the most tricks with the five of diamonds. Mrs. Stafford was presented individual salt dishes. Out of town guests were Mesdames S. W. Marriner and G. W. Rollins of Warsaw.

Local Manse Gets Inside Going Over

Rev. Morrison seems to be a jack-of-all-trades. For the past few weeks he has been painting a number of rooms in the local manse. Oh yes, he did have some help. Professional painter, Charlie Wilkerson and young Bobby Ingram helped him a few days. The inside of the manse looks much brighter now. Want another job, Preacher?

Attending P. M. Convention

Postmasters J. L. Williams of Kenansville, Albert Hall, Jr., of Wallace, Walter Bridgers of Warsaw and Earl Gresham of Beulaville left on Thursday for Columbia, S. C., to attend a joint meeting of North and South Carolina at the National Association of Postmasters. When this group attends an association the report is that there is something doing.

Entertains Club

Mrs. C. B. Guthrie was hostess to the members of the Monday evening bridge club with Miss Martha Pickett and Mrs. Robert MacKenzie as guests. Lovely arrangements of roses and mixed spring flowers were used for decoration. The hostess served open faced sandwiches, cookies and coca colas. At the conclusion of play, Mrs. L. F. Weeks was awarded attractive note paper for scoring high.

Notice

You are cordially invited to the Annual May Birthday Party of the Woman's Auxiliary of Grove Presbyterian Church on Monday evening, May 26 at 8:00 o'clock in the Sunday school building. This is the 25th Anniversary celebration.

Sewing Club

Mrs. F. W. McGowen was hostess to the BMG Sewing Club on Tuesday afternoon in the Woman's club rooms. The project for the afternoon was a continuation of Red Cross sewing. Ten little red caps have been practically completed during this month and it is hoped that twenty more will be finished.

Mrs. G. V. Gooding won three games out of the six. After other games, the hostess served delicious pound cake, ice cream and peanuts. The bride was then presented with a shower of pretty and useful gifts.
