Society and Personals

Kontract Klub

Mrs. I. C. Burch was hostess to the members of the Kenansville Kontract Klub on Wednesday evening with all members present except one whose place was filled by Mrs. Emory Sadler. Lovely arrangements of spring flowers were used for decoration. At the end of several progressions, Mrs. V. B. Gavin was awarded high score prize, a box of note paper, for club members and Mrs. Sadler was remembered also with note paper. The hostess served a delicious sweet course.

Thursday Afternoon Club Meets

On Thursday afternoon, Mrs. Wm. Pickett entertained the members of her bridge club and Mrs. T. A. Turner of Pink Hill. Artistic arrangements of mixed spring flowers were used on auxiliary tables. When scores were totaled Mrs. G. V. Gooding scored high for club members and Mrs. Turner was given a pretty handkerchief. The hostess, assisted by her daughter, Mrs. H. D. McKay, served home made ice cream and cake.

Youth Entertain Their Mothers

The Youth Fellowship, sponsored by Mrs. G. V. Gooding, had a pretty party Sunday evening at the Sunday School rooms, for their mothers. The program consisted of an educational skit in playlet form, after which contests were held and games were played. A social hour was enjoyed at which time the hosts served ice cream and individual cup cakes carrying out a color scheme of pink and green. Each mother was presented a miniature corsage.

Stork Shower

On Wednesday evening Mrs. Betty Whitfield entertained at a stork shower honoring Mrs. Billy Whitfield. About thirty-five guests were present. A contest was held and three tied for the prize which was awarded Miss Dora Betty Dixon for drawing the lucky number. Mrs. Billy Whitfield won a prize in a second contest. A baby carriage was rolled in laden with gifts, which the honoree opened. The guests were invited into the dining room where a punch bowl was artistically arranged on the dining table and the hostess served punch and cookies.

May Birthday Party

The 25th anniversary of the Woman's Auxiliary of the Presbyterian church was observed in the Sunday School rooms Monday evening with the president, Mrs. N. B. Boney and secretary, Mrs. J. G. Morrison presiding over the business session which was followed by the program. Mrs. Mary Southerland, secretary of Foreign Missions, had charge of the program the topic being "Brothers or Bombs". Mrs. John Currie furnished the music and Mrs. Caroline Gavin offered a special prayer. A silver offering was taken for Foreign Missions.

The guests were invited into an adjoining room where a birthday cake topped with 25 candles graced one end of the table was served by Mrs. J. R. Grady and the punch surrounded by clusters of rose buds was served by Mrs. D. H. McKay and Miss Margaret Williams.

May Birthday Is Observed At Hallsville

The Kenansville Auxiliary were guests of the Hallsville Auxiliary at their May Birthday observance held on Saturday afternoon at the Hallsville Church in the new Sunday School rooms. After the program, a social hour was enjoyed at which time the hosts served pound cake and punch.

Mrs. Stafford Is Honored

One of the loveliest parties of the season was given on Saturday evening at the club room, when Messdames Wilbur Adams and D. H. McKay and Misses Margaret and Marie Williams entertained at eight tables of bridge honoring Mrs. Margaret Stafford, bride-elect. The guests were seated by bridal tables at the tables which were placed in a bower of daisies, roses and other spring flowers with sweet peas trailing overhead and a background of long leaf pine.

As each guest entered a nosegay of sweet peas was presented her while the bride-elect and her mother, Mrs. G. R. Dail, and sister, Miss Anne Dail, were given corsages of roses. Coca colas were served during the first progression and at the end of play the honoree was given a waffle iron and grill. High score, a dainty bell, was won by Miss Mildred Pate and presented to the bride by Miss Pate. Second high score, an ice bowl with tongs, was won by Mrs. L. F. Weeks and a novelty vase for winning the most tricks with the deuce of diamonds was presented Mrs. C. B. Guthrie.

The hostesses served most attractive plates centered with individual wedding ice cream molds, individual cakes, small bridal baskets with nuts and mints and ginger ale.
