See You In Church....

There's a good reason for Mrs. Smith's happy smile! She's telling Mrs. Jones all about the grand time everyone had last night at church. It was "open house" and everybody came to chat a bit, meet new people and enjoy themselves thoroughly..

Naturally, we all realize that social activities are only one part of the many fine services our churches render, that the first and foremost rule of the church is to give religious guidance and comfort.

Attend church services regularly and take an active part in the benevolent and social activities of your church. We sincerely hope that we'll see you in church—often!
