Behind the Curtain

Too much misinformation has been circulated about Russia. A lot of this has been put into circulation by Russia. Some of it has come from fellow-travelers and other admirers of the Soviet experiment. There have been honest mistakes of American writers who have been unable to penetrate the mysteries behind the iron curtain. Prominent Americans who have "toured" Russia have too often become dupes of propaganda shows cleverly contrived for visiting eyes.

Gradually, however, facts are coming to light. Documented and unbiased studies are greatly needed, for they will dispose of many fallacies about the Soviets. Straight facts will set folks right who have accepted such boners as this one: There's no unemployment in Russia. It's quite true, but slave laborers have been estimated at 14,000, 000. You see, unemployment insurance is not even necessary.

Facts Talk Loud

Such a factual study is the 141page book, Communism in Action, prepared under direction of Congressman Dirksen of Illinois. Printed as a house document by the Legislative Reference Service of the Library of Congress, the book may be obtained from the U. S. Government Printing Office, Washington, D. C., for 25 cents. Copies are also distributed free by the American Wage Earners Foundation, Suite 605, 30 North LaSalle Street, Chicago, Ill.

Written in a simple, factual style, without the customary slanted or biased approach, the book should interest all Americans who have been confronted with the idea that "the State does the job better." The facts set forth therein do not call for elaboration or editorial bias. They talk loud enough to make a mighty good advertisement for the American way of life.

Special Privileges Russian Communism theoreti-

eally envisions a classless seciety. On the basis of pay, the difference between the status of the wage earner and the manager is much greater there than in America. The many "special privileges and bonuses" that are distributed to the Soviet managers make this inequality more striking. The average wage of workers was reported in pre-war year as approximately $10 to $12.50 a month.

What about labor? Yes, in Russia labor is active and organized. Joining unions there is a political and economic necessity. Labor leaders are appointed by the ruling a and their duties are to speed up production, to keep labor disciplined. Wages are not a subject for discussion or negotiation. There is no collective bargaining. Most Russian labor laws, rulings, and practices would be called "anti-labor" by American unions.

There are no minorities: there is no deviation from the "party line." The final decision of the people, in elections, must conform to the "party" decision. In the party, religion is equivalent to "superstitions and unscientific processes." Profits are a capitalistic phenomenon, and therefore go to the state alone. The vast profits of the Soviet do not go to the workers whose property they are said to be, but to further the expansion of "the Soviet of the future." Little wonder this study terms Communism a "theoretic failure."

Red Sox Swamp Red Springs 18-6

The Warsaw Red Sox made merry with the Clinton Blues Wednesday night when they triumphed over the Blues to the tune of 18-6.

Faircloth on the mound for the Sox, did a beautiful job of allowing only 8 hits, 3 bases on balls while striking out 6. Not only did he pitch good ball, but got 3 hits for imself from the opponents.

Stephens, Jones and Jordan each contributed home runs to Warsaw's big batting party, staged at the expense of three Clinton hurlers. Each homer caught runners on base.

Warsaw played hosts to the Lum berton Cubs Sunday afternoon, but were turned back by the Cubs to the score of 12-8. Lumberton had a big fifth inning in which five runs were scored and after getting three more in the eighth, one in the third, two in the fourth and ninth the Sox just failed to get well.

Monday night the Red Sox went to Lumberton for a double header, with Warsaw scoring 15 to 10 in the first and gave the Cubs the next with the Cubs leading 13 to 1.

Tuesday night the Sox met the Sampson Blues on the local diamond with Wright pitching for the visitors a 3-hit shutout game. While the score-keeper kept marking goose eggs in the Sox's frame, the Blues romped away with the game by a score of 8 to 0.

Uncle Sam Says

All of us would like to put dad on a pedestal on Father's Day to show him how we feel about him the year round. I like to think of all American fathers in the role of Minute Mest, standing guard over the security of their families. Certainly they could do me better than to assure the happiness of themselves and their homes than by buying United States Savings Bonds regularly.

Two automatic bond buying plans

Savings Bonds regularly.

Two automatic bond buying plans are available now. If dad is on a payroll, the Payroll Savings Plan will assure him days of ease when he gets ready to retire. If dad is a professional man or self-employed, he can use his checking account to buy a bond a month,
