Poole - Cosby Vows Are Spoken

The wedding of Miss Ida Gordon Cosby, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. Guarrant Cosby, Jr., and Arnold Bernard Poole, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dorsey Ernest Poole of Raleigh, took place Saturday at 6 o'clock in the Rivermont Presbyterian Church in Lynchburg, Va. The Rev. P. G.

Cosby, III, and the Rev. N. Gordon Cosby, brothers of the bride, officiated, using the double ring ceremony. Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white satin wedding gown, designed on princess lines, embroidered in seed pearls with a full skirt terminating in a long train, and she carried a cascade bouquet of white roses, gardenias and stephanotis. A full-length veil of illusion fell from a coronet of satin and orange blossoms. She wore an heirloom necklace worn by her mother at her wedding. Miss Gladys Ogden, wearing a yellow marquisette gown over taffeta and carrying a bouquet of snapdragons, daisies, and yellow roses, was maid of honor and Esther L. Cosby, niece of the bride, in miniature replica, dropped rose petals before the bride.

The bridesmaids, in blue marquisette over taffeta and carrying bouquets of delphinium, daisies and baby's breath, were Misses Ellwood Gordon and Elizabeth Gordon, cousins of the bride, Miss Virginia Jackson and Mrs. E. P. Patterson, Jr., all of Lynchburg, Mrs. John McMurray of Washington and Mrs. Jourdan Bivins of Hillsboro.

Dorsey E. Poole, Jr., of Raleigh was his brother's best man. Grooms men were Stanley Poole, brother of the bridegroom, Jack Terrell Cosby and Beverly R. Cosby, brothers of the bride. The Rev. Robert G. Hall of Westminster, S. C., Gerald Murdock and James G. Murdock of Wildwood.

Out-of-town guests from Raleigh were Dorsey E. Poole, father of the bridegroom and the bridegroom's brother, Edward Poole.

An informal reception for the bridal party, immediate family, and out of town guests was held at the home of the bride's parents.

Mrs. Poole last month completed the course at the Presbyterian General Assembly's Training School in Richmond, and the Rev. Poole received the degree of bachelor of divinity at Union Theological Seminary in Richmond, and is serving as pastor of the Presbyterian churches of Clarksville, Cluster Springs, Turbeville and the Bluestone Church.
