UDC Meets In Warsaw

The James Kenan Chapter of the United Daughters of the Confederacy met Thursday afternoon in the home of Mesdames S. E. Hines and W. H. Bridgers with joint hostesses Mrs. John West and Mrs. J. M. Peirce and approximately twenty-one present.
 Mrs. H. L. Stevens, Jr., presided and opened the meeting with the group singing "America" followed by the ritual read by the Chaplain, Mrs. C. A. Womack. Mrs. J. M. Peirce, secretary, read the minutes of the last meeting and Mrs. Stevens read letters from the 9th District officers in recognition of the meeting held April 15 at which time the James Kenan Chapter were hostesses to the 9th District meeting. Mrs. Rivers Johnson, treasurer, gave her report as did other officers.
 As a means of stimulating interest, Mrs. Stevens asked that the members do some essay writing in connection with UDC selected topics, and recognized as visitors Mrs. L. A. Beasley of Kenansville and Mrs. Warren A. Smith of Warsaw.
 Prior to the program Mrs. Stevens led the Chapter in the singing of "Dixie" and Mrs. J. M. Peirce gave an interesting discussion of "Jefferson Davis" after which Mrs. Stevens conducted a contest relative to the discussion with Miss Daisy Burnham receiving candy for the best score.
 The hostesses served a tempting congenial fruit salad course with iced tea.

The marriage of Mrs. Mary Pridgen Williams, daughter of Mrs. Harrison Eccles Pridgen, Sr., and the late Mr. Pridgen of Warsaw to Claud V. Holland, of Goldsboro, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Holland of Richmond, Va., was solemnized in a candlelight ceremony at the bride's home on Hill Street at 8:30 June 27th. The Rev. A. M. Williams pastor of the Warsaw Methodist Church officiating. Only the family and intimate friends of the couple were present.
 The bride wore a street length dress of soft pink crepe with an orchid flower hat and brown accessories. Her corsage was of pink talisman roses.
 Following the ceremony, the mother of the bride entertained at a reception after which the couple left for a wedding trip to Canada and upon their return they will make their home in Goldsboro where the bridegroom is employed as Station Master Ticket Agent at the Union Station.
