Mesdames Sharpe and Barker Entertain At Parties Honoring Brides-Elect

On Friday evening at 8:15 Mesdames Avon Sharpe and Charles Barker, of Oxford, the former Miss Eva Carter, of Warsaw, entertained most graciously in the home of Mrs. Sharpe when they complimented Miss Margaret Miller, bride-elect.

The Sharpe home was attractively decorated with a profusion of white chrysanthemums and dahlias and six tables of bridge and rummy were in play.

During progressions coca colas and nuts were served and at the conclusion of play awards went to Mrs. Emmett Roark, a crystal ball, for ladies; and Wilbur Garner, candy for men's high score in bridge. Mrs. J. F. Strickland received a double deck of cards and George Sutton also received candy for rummy high scores. Miss Miller was remembered with china in her chosen pattern.

The hostesses, assisted by their mother, Mrs. W. A. Carter, served a tempting sweet course of pecan pie with coffee to the honoree, Miss Miller and her fiancé, David Lassater, of Erwin, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Garner, Mr. and Mrs. L. S.

Whittle, Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Jordan, Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Roark, Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. West, Mr. and Mrs. James Franklin Strickland, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Sharpe, Mesdames Glenn Rollins, Stacy Britt, Thomas Rogers, J. K. Rea, Jr., Misses "Kitten" Miller and Agner Turnage, Charles Barker and Avon Sharpe.

Again on Saturday morning at 11 o'clock Mesdames Sharpe and Barker were hostesses when they entertained at a Coca cola hour honoring Misses Janice Draughon and Miss Mary Elizabeth Herring, brides-elect and Mrs. Ben Cooper of Chapel Hill, who before her recent marriage was Miss Hazel Strickland, of Warsaw.

Each of the honorees were presented crystal gifts and Mrs. Carter assisted her daughters in serving dainty sandwiches, cheese biscuits, pecan rolls, nuts, devil food squares and coca colas to Misses Draughon, Herring, Mae Brock, Sara Gaylor, and Mesdames Cooper, Allen Draughon, R. M. Herring and J. F. Strickland.

Miss Hawkins, Granddaughter Of Mrs. Middleton Becomes Happy Bride

Miss Martha Elizabeth Hawkins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Marvin Hawkins of Richmond, became the bride of the Rev. Charles Warner Crumb, son of Mrs. Edgar Alvin Crumb and the late Mr. Crumb of Cape Charles, Va., at 4 o'clock in the afternoon on October 4th in the Porter Street Presbyterian Church in Richmond with Rev. Bernard E. Via officiating, assisted by the Rev. H. Ruffner Lowan.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of ivory satin fashioned with a marquisette yoke outlined with a bertha of bretonne lace, fitted bodice, long sleeves tapering into points over the hands and a full skirt extending into a circular train. Her finger-tip veil of illusion fell from a coronet of orange blossoms and bretonne lace. She carried a white Bible showered with gardenias and stephanotis.

Mrs. James Thomas Wadkins, Jr. of Richmond, matron of honor wore a gown of arcaudy blue velveteen fashioned with a square neckline, cap sleeves, fitted bodice, bustle and full skirt. Her mitts were of matching velveteen. She carried a bouquet of bronze chrysanthemums and talisman roses.

The bridesmaids were Miss Phyllis Kohl and Miss Martha Spicer both of Richmond. Miss Marvel Daughtery of Huntington, W. Va. and Mrs. Melvin Baynard of Norfolk sister of the groom. Their dresses in American velveteen were similar to that of the Matron of Honor. Their flowers were similar to that of the honor attendant.

E. Alvin Crumb, brother of the groom was best man. The ushers were James T. Wadkins, Jr. of Richmond, Rev. Woodrow Laire of King William, Rev. James Reynolds of Duke University, Durham, and Gilmer Pritchett of the University of Virginia, Charlottesville. Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was given in the church parlor after which Rev. and Mrs. Crumb left for a trip thru the mountains of North Carolina. Upon their return they will make their home in Batesville, Va.

Mrs. Crumb is a graduate of the John Marshall High School of Richmond and the Richmond Professional Institute of the College of William and Mary where she received her B.S. degree in Medical Technology. Since her graduation in June 1946 she has been employed as Laboratory Technician in Saint Elizabeth Hospital of Richmond.

Mr. Crumb received his B.A. degree from the Randolph Macon College and was awarded his B.D. degree from the Candler School of Theology, Emory University of Atlanta, Ga. He joined the Virginia Methodist Conference in 1946 and since that time has served as pastor of the Batesville charge in Batesville, Va.

Mrs. Crumb is the grand daughter of Mrs. Lela Middleton of War-formative. About this prized shrub Mrs. Holmes told her audience its original home, its introduction into the United States, the various varieties, its propagation, the successful mode of cultivation, and complimentary shrubs to set in a garden with it. In closing, she invited the club members to visit her camellia garden in early spring.

Next on the program was Mrs. Frank Lee, whose subject was "Conserving Our Most Valuable Resource - Youth". She made an earnest appeal to the club women to promote all programs that plan for recreational centers for youth and stressed particularly the ne-for wholesome activities for all the youth - not merely the favored few - of a community.

During the informal hour the hostesses served a salad course.
