Mrs. Frederick Is Hostess To Club

Mrs. Robert Frederick entertained her bridge club and several additional guests Thursday afternoon with two tables in play. Arrangements of dahlias were used in the living room. Mrs. Emmett Roark, high scorer, was presented salt and pepper shakers and Mrs. Jimmy McColman was awarded novelty matches for traveling award.

The hostess served a dainty plate consisting of ham biscuits, strawberry tarts and Russian tea.

Miss Miller Bride Of D. E. Lasater

In a simple and private ceremony Miss Margaret Miller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James C. Miller, became the bride of Mr. David Eaton Lasater, Jr., son of Mr. D. E. Lasater, Sr., and the late Mrs. Lasater of Erwin, at 8 o'clock in the evening on Thursday, Oct. 23, at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. L. S. Whittle on Pine St., in Warsaw.

The vows were spoken before the fireplace and mantle which was centered with a bridal arrangement of roses, dahlias, pom pom chrysanthemums and fern in a brass bowl. On either side were seven branched candelabra holding bridal tapers which were lighted by Chief Petty Officer Norwood Bostic, of Norfolk, Va., brother-in-law of the bride.

The Rev. G. Van Stephens, pastor of the Warsaw Baptist Church and pastor of the bride, officiated, using the single ring ceremony, the ring being that of the groom's mother.

Prior to and during the ceremony appropriate nuptial selections were rendered, including "Because" "Intermezzo" and "Ava Maria", closing with "The Lord's Prayer" as the benediction.

The bride wore for her wedding an original suit of brown gaberdine with matching accessories. Her shoulder corsage was of three green throated orchids. Mrs. Lasater, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Miller, was employed in the local telephone office for several years before operating the Legion Cafe.

The bridegroom attended State College in Raleigh and is now associated in business with his father near Erwin, where the young couple will reside following their return from a wedding trip to the mountains of North Carolina and Tennessee.

Immediately following the ceremony the bride's sisters, Mrs. Whittle and Mrs. Norwood Bostic entertained at a cake cutting for the bridal couple and families. In the dining room the table was overlaid with a handsome lace cloth centered with the two tiered wedding cake, topped with a miniature bride and groom with music box playing Wagner's Bridal Chorus from "Lohrengrin". Tapers in double crystal holders burned on either end of the table and on auxiliary tables was an arrangement of chrysanthemums in silver pitchers. After the bride and groom had cut the first slices of the wedding cake Mrs. J. C. Miller, mother of the bride, continued and was assisted in serving bridal ices, nuts, green and white floral mints and punch by Misses "Kitten" and Jean Miller, Agnes Turnage, Joyce and Sue Whittle.

Out Of Town Guests:
 D. E. Lasater, Sr., father of the groom, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Lasater and Miss Nancy Lasater, of Erwin, Mr. and Mrs. Bostic, Norfolk, Va., James Miller, Darlington S. C., Mr. and Mrs. James Lasater, Dunn, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Sterns, Monroe, and Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Davis, of Raleigh.

James Kenan Chap. UDC Holds Meet

The James Kenan Chapter of the UDC held their October meeting Thursday afternoon in the home of Mrs. C. B. Best with Mesdames J. C. Brock, C. F. Carroll and Daisy Jordan as co-hostesses with 18 present and President Mrs. Henry L. Stevens, Jr., presiding.

Mrs. Stevens opened the meeting with "Carolina" followed by the ritual led by the Chaplain, Mrs. C. A. Womack. Mrs. O. S. Burnette of Rose Hill was welcomed as a new member and applications of several new members petitioned. Mrs. J. W. Farris, Chairman of the nominating committee for the selection of officers for the year, reported as follows: Pres. Mrs. Robert L. West; Vice-Pres. Mrs. Q. J. Sutton; Secty. Mrs. Stacy Britt; Treas. Mrs. L. B. Hule; Chaplain, Mrs. C. A. Womack; Custodian, Mrs. R. C. Pridgen; Historian, Mrs. Kathleen P. Snyder; Registrar, Mrs. Harvey Boney; Recorder of Crosses, Mrs. C. F. Carroll.

Mrs. W. J. Middleton gave a report of the 55th Annual State UDC Convention held in Rocky Mt. on Oct. 7, 8, and 9, in an interesting manner after which Mrs. L. B. Hule, program chairman, presented an interesting program, highlighting our Confederate ancestors in whose name the members became Daughters. It was interesting to note that four members present joined under their fathers, who were each illustrious veterans, namely, Mesdames C. A. Womack, R. C. Pridgen, John Best and Daisy Jordan. Each member cited interesting works of their ancestors and Mrs. Henry L. Stevens, Jr., retiring President with eight years of efficient work, concluded the program with her essay which won her a $5 award at the recent convention. Her essay, written in a most interesting manner, told of the life and war time incidents of "A veteran I Once Knew", referring to her grandfather, Capt. Seymour A. Johnson, father of her mother, Mrs. L. A. Beasley of Kenansville. Senator Rivers Johnson and Mrs. Daisy Smith of Warsaw.

After the program the hostesses served dainty UDC decorated individual cakes with ice cream followed by demi tasse.

A WORD OF APPRECIATION

On December 1, 1941, I, with associates, opened the Duplin Trading Company in Warsaw. We saw a need for such an institution to supply the farmers of the Warsaw trading area. The response was gratifying and we want to express our sincere appreciation for the fine confidence shown us. The business has grown every year and we believe will continue to grow.

The condition of my health has necessitated my moving into a different climate. The new ownership will continue the same policies and service as heretofore shown.
