Tuscarora Scouts To Hold Fall "Round-up" On November 7-8

A fall "Round-Up Encampment" for white Boy Scouts will be held at Camp Tuscarora on Nov. 7 and 8. Attendance is expected from the four counties which Tuscarora area serves — Duplin, Johnston, Sampson and Wayne.

Informal activities will be conducted on Friday afternoon with Troop campfires that night. Saturday morning will be devoted to Scoutcraft contests and woodcraft games. One highlight of the week end will be the draining of the camp lake. It has not been drained in several years and it is expected there will be a lot of fish for all to seine and have for a fish fry.

A campfire will be held Saturday night with parents of scouts invited. Following the campfire, the encampment will officially close with the Scouts returning to their homes in order to attend Sunday School and church Sunday.

Each Troop will be required to be under adult leadership of their Scoutmaster or other leader. They will bring their own tents, sleeping equipment and food. Each Troop will be assigned to different sites on the camp property.

A similar encampment for Negro Boy Scouts will be held at Camp Carver on November 21-23.

Outlaws Bridge

The A.U.W. will meet Saturday with Mrs. Henry Parker hostess. All members urged to come and visitors are welcome.

Mrs. W. D. Pate returned home Sunday after visiting in Rocky Mount and Virginia.

Mrs. H. C. Doby, Jr., of Wake Forest spent the week end with her mother, Mrs. Leona Outlaw. Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Simmons and W. G. spent Saturday and Sunday in Franklinton.

Mrs. Wm. Sutton spent last week with her parents at Princeton. Kenneth Malpass spent the week end with relatives in Farmville, Va. Miss Lucy Outlaw visited during last week Mr. and Mrs. Albert Nichols in Sims.

A moderate decline in hog prices through fall and early winter is likely as marketings of 1947 spring pigs reach their heaviest volume.

ATTENTION FORD OWNERS

The Following Parts of Your Car Must Pass The Safety Examination By The State Mechanical Inspectors of Motor Vehicles Beginning Jan. 1st.

LIGHTS, HORN, BRAKES, STEERING, MUFFLER, TAIL PIPE, TIRES, WINDSHIELD WIPER, WIRING AND CLEAR GLASS IN ALL WINDOWS. — The Following Stickers Will Be Used To Grade Your Car:

Sticker No. 1

The bright blue approval seal, will be affixed to the windshield of all vehicles which pass the minimum requirements.

Sticker No. 2

A red and diamond shape, will be on vehicles which fail to meet the minimum safety requirements. (Owners of cars which the red-diamond sticker is affixed will have a certain length of time in which to have their vehicles placed in good repair, at which time it may be re-examined without additional cost.)

Sticker No. 3

An 8 by 10 inch, yellow sticker, bearing a red cross, will go on vehicles found to be absolutely unsafe for the highways. Such vehicles will be labelled CONDEMNED, and cannot be driven away from the inspection stations.
