

Negro T. B. Worker Visits County

The Duplin County TB Association sponsored a meeting of the colored people of the county at the Kenansville Negro High School on last Friday night.

North Carolina Tuberculosis Association, who gave a very interesting and informative talk on the need and importance of a Better Control of Tuberculosis program in this county.

Dr. G. V. Gooding, County Health Officer, told of the Association and Health Department's cooperative plans for carrying out this program. Mrs. Gordon Kornegay, Executive Secretary of the Duplin County Association, explained the procedure of putting on a Seal Sale by mail, giving those present the opportunity to express themselves in regard to the manner in which they would like to have their Seal Sale conducted.

Much discussion was heard and a motion was carried to conduct their Seal Sale through the school and partly by mail.

Mrs. Marie Monk was elected Seal Sale Chairman for the Negroes and will cooperate with Mr. Lewis Outlaw, County Seal Sale Chairman in making the 1947 Seal Sale a success.
