

Law News Of Interest To Every One

STACY BRITT

WARSAW EDITOR
Subscription Agent
Advertising Solicitor
Dial 293-6

Please

Call In Your News

(INTENDED FOR LAST WEEK)

Mrs. Strickland Hostess To Club

Mrs. Edward Strickland delightfully entertained her bridge club and several additional guests on Friday afternoon at her home which was attractively decorated with chrysanthemums.

Upon arrival guests were served a tempting sweet course of heavenly hash with coffee and at the conclusion Mrs. Ed Hines received a box of homemade candy for high score award. During play dainty canapes and coca colas were served.

Mrs. Stevens Honors Guest

Mrs. E. Walker Stevens was hostess Tuesday afternoon when she entertained at her home on Hill St. at four tables of bridge, honoring Mrs. C. C. Loth of Waynesboro, Va., house guest of her sister, Mrs. H. L. Stevens, Jr.

Throughout the lower floor of the Stevens home were placements of pink and white chrysanthemums.

When scores were tabulated after several progressions, Mrs. Vance B. Gavin of Kenansville, received a novelty tray for high score and Mrs. Loth was presented an antique slipper.

Mrs. Stevens served a tempting chicken salad course with sandwiches and coffee to her guests.

Honors Husband

Mrs. Thomas Rogers entertained at an informal steak supper Monday evening, honoring her husband, Chief of Police, Rogers, on his birthday. Yellow chrysanthemums were used in the living room and hall. Covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. Dallas Ritter, Mr. and Mrs. Stacy Britt and Mr. and Mrs. Rogers.

Duplin Theatre Warsaw, N. C.

SUN. - MON. Nov. 30 - Dec. 1

Bachelor And The Bobby-Soxer

With Cary Grant,
And Myrna Loy.

TUES. Dec. 2

Johnny O'Clock

With Dick Powell,
And Evelyn Keyes.

WED. Dec. 3

Double Feature

Gun Law

With George O'Brien.

Scared To Death

With Bela Lugosi.

THURS. - FRI. Dec. 4-5

The Foxes Of Harrow

With Rex Harrison,
And Maureen O'Hara.

SAT. Dec. 6

Double Feature

Marshall Of Cripple Creek

With Alan Lane.

Bush Pilot

With Jack La Rue.

Miss Bostic Becomes The Bride Of Mr. Peterson In Magnolia

Miss Berta Melza Bostic, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Love Bostic, of Magnolia, became the bride of Mr. Kenneth Clark Peterson, son of Mrs. J. C. Peterson and the late Mr. Peterson, of Orion, Illinois, in a candlelight ceremony at 3 p. m. November 1 in the Magnolia Baptist Church at Magnolia, N. C.

The Rev. Clemmons Peterson, brother of the groom, assisted by Rev. J. B. Sessoms, pastor of the bride, performed the double ring ceremony.

Mrs. C. E. Latham of Rose Hill, pianist, and Miss Iris Herring of Wallace, vocalist, gave the program of nuptial music.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white lace and illusion, fashioned with a long fitted bodice with self-covered buttons down the back. The full skirt swept into a circular chapel length train. The white lace bodice had a deep shoulder yoke of illusion edged in pleated illusion and long fitted sleeves which came to a point over the hands. The fingertip veil of illusion fell from a tiara of orange blossoms. Her only jewelry was a single strand of pearls, a gift of the groom. She carried a prayer book centered with a white orchid.

The bride's only attendants were her sister-in-law, Mrs. Marlow Bostic of Rose Hill, who served as matron of honor, and Miss Hilda Brinson of Kenansville, who was bridesmaid. Mrs. Marlow Bostic wore a blue taffeta dress and carried a bouquet of nosegays. Miss Brinson wore a peach taffeta dress and also carried a bouquet of nosegays. Adolph Bostic of Louisburg, brother of the bride, served as Mr. Peterson's best man. Ushers were Marlow Bostic of Rose Hill and Milton Bostic of Greenville, brothers of the bride.

Mrs. Warren Bostic, mother of the bride, was dressed in black with black accessories and wore a corsage of red roses.

Mrs. J. C. Peterson, mother of the groom, was also dressed in black with black accessories and wore a corsage of red roses.

Following the wedding, a reception for the family and out-of-town guests was held at the home of the bride.

Out-of-town guests attending the wedding were Rev. and Mrs. Clemmons Peterson of Agema, Wis., Mrs. J. C. Peterson of Orion, Ill., and Miss Agnes Lawson of Orion, Ill.; Mrs. Mack Griffith, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Allen, and Mrs. Naomi Long, of Wilmington, N. C.

Following the reception, the bride and groom left for a trip to Williamsburg, Va., and Niagara Falls. For traveling she wore a green gaberdine suit with which she wore an orchid corsage.

After the wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Peterson plan to make their home in Fairfax, Va.

Circle Meets

The Good Samaritan Circle of the WMU met Monday afternoon in the home of Mrs. J. L. Ketchside with Mrs. Conrad Boone presiding. Mrs. G. S. Best was assisted by several ladies in presenting an interesting program on Africa, using for the Bible study Isaiah 59:20-60. Following the business the hostess assisted by her daughter, Mrs. Oscar Joyner, served mixed fruits.

UDC Meets

The James Kenan Chapter UDC was entertained Thursday afternoon in the home of Mrs. L. B. Huie, assisted by Mesdames J. W. Farris and J. W. Middleton with 14 present.

Mrs. H. L. Stevens, Jr., opened the meeting with song followed by ritual and flag salutes led by Chaplain, Mrs. C. A. Womack. Minutes were read and approved, followed by various reports. Mrs. Stevens reminded members not to forget to bring their gifts for the old ladies Christmas gift to the December meeting.

Mrs. R. L. West presented an interesting paper on Patriotic Organizations, in which she sketched the founding and works of the Confederate Veterans, United Daughters of the Confederacy, Sons of the American Revolution, Daughters of the American Revolution,

Miss Hitchcock Weds Mr. Salyer In Home Ceremony

On Saturday afternoon, November 15, in a quiet and simple ceremony at her home, Miss Barbara Hitchcock, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Henry Hitchcock, of Warsaw, was married to Mr. Curtis William Salyer, son of R. E. Salyer and the late Mrs. Salyer, of Lynch, Ky., with the Rev. Eugene H. Clarke pastor of the Warsaw Presbyterian Church officiating and using the double ring ceremony.

Bridal arrangements of white gladioli and fern were placed on the mantel and on either side of the fireplace were floor standards of burning tapers and palms.

Miss Harriett Hitchcock, sister of the bride, lighted the candles and Mrs. J. E. Williams presented a program of nuptial music prior to and during the ceremony. Her selections included "Echoes of Spring" by Friml; "Slumber Song" by Schumann; and "Melody in D. Flat" by Robinson. During the ceremony she softly played "Oh Promise Me" by De Koven and used the traditional wedding marches.

The bride wore for her wedding a medium blue wool suit with black accessories and a shoulder corsage of red roses.

Mrs. Hitchcock, mother of the bride, wore light blue with corsage of white carnations.

Mrs. Salyer after graduating from Warsaw High School attended East Carolina Teachers College in Greenville.

Mr. Salyer attended schools in his home town and Blue Ridge Episcopal School at Bristol, Va. After serving 3 years in the U. S. Marine Corps he played professional baseball and came to Warsaw Red Sox this past summer from Goldsboro. He is at present employed with Thompson Electric Co., in Raleigh.

Mrs. Herring Is Hostess To Tufting Party

Mrs. J. B. Herring entertained on Tuesday at a neighborhood tufting party at her home in the Wylie apartments. Assisting Mrs. Herring in serving fruit and candy and enjoying the day of fun were Mesdames L. C. Boone, Conrad Boone and J. J. Britt.

Birthday Party

Saturday afternoon little Ellen Ann Pollock, Bill Rollins and Johnny Pat Harmon jointly celebrated their fourth birthdays by entertaining with a pretty party at the home of Mrs. Edgar Pollock. Twenty-five little folks enjoyed games and contests and were served cake, ice cream, pink lemonade and received favors of candy and blow gum. Mrs. Pollock was assisted in serving and entertaining by Mrs. J. P. Harmon, Mrs. Glenn Rollins, Mrs. G. W. Rollins and Miss Anna Mac Brown of Fayetteville, house guest of the Harmons.

American Legion and lastly our own North Carolina UDC. An interesting highlight was the reading of General R. F. Hoke's "Farewell Address" to his men at the close of the War Between The States. General Hoke was the grandfather of Mrs. West and the address was read by Mrs. Sallie Gibbs Pridgen Anderson, of Yancyville, a new member of the chapter. Concluding the program Mrs. Stevens, assisted by Mrs. C. B. Best at the piano, led an interesting contest of famous wartime musical selections. Mrs. J. W. Farris, with the best paper was presented a novelty gift after which Mrs. Stevens, as retiring president, duly installed Mrs. R. L. West, as the incoming president; Mrs. Stacy Britt, Secretary; and Mrs. L. B. Huie, Treasurer. The hostesses served a dainty course of sandwiches, cookies and hot coffee.

Wallace announce the birth of a daughter, Linda Kaye, on Friday, November 14, at home. Mrs. Ridge is the former Miss Olive Herring of Warsaw.

WMU Study In All Day Conference

The WMU held their regular mission study course, forerunner of the annual Week of Prayer, on Friday in the home of Mrs. C. J. Brown, which was decorated with arrangements of varicolored autumn leaves.

At 10:30 a. m. Mrs. G. Van Stephens began her instructions of the book, "That The World May Know". She presented the study in her usual interesting and impressive manner. At 12:30 a covered dish buffet luncheon with hot coffee was served to the 30 present. Mrs. Stephens concluded the study in the afternoon. During the luncheon hour Mrs. Brown delighted the guests with organ selections.

Invitation

Mrs. David Cleveland Marshburn requests the honor of your presence at the marriage of their daughter, Edna Mae, to Mr. Enoch Carlton McLamb, Jr., on Tuesday, December the second at eight o'clock in the evening, Clinton Baptist Church Clinton, North Carolina.

Miss Marshburn is a member of the Warsaw Grammar School Faculty.

PTA Meeting

The Warsaw PTA held their Nov. meeting Tuesday evening at the High School with president Mrs. M. A. Smith presiding.

Mrs. Stacy Britt, Publicity chairman, was in charge of the program and introduced Mrs. Kathleen Snyder, Home Ec teacher, who presented an interesting program, assisted by the FHA Club. She explained the Future Homemakers of America. Miss Claudia Carlton began the program by leading a responsive reading followed by "The Lord's Prayer" and singing "America". Miss Jean Miller, president of the local chapter, assisted by Miss Martha Anne Smith, Secretary and Miss Laura West, Page, formally initiated the new members of the club in an impressive candlelight ceremony. Mrs. Snyder had the stage attractively decorated in the club colors, red and white.

During business reports were heard from all committees. In the recent PTA membership drive prizes of $3, $2, and $1 went to the following rooms in grammar school Mrs. J. M. Jenkins' 6th grade, Mrs. Eleanor McColman's 2nd grade and Mrs. McGee's 5th grade. The drive has not yet been held in the high school. In room count Miss Lenora Womack's 3rd grade and Miss Jewel Horne's 7th grade each with 9 parents present received $1. Mrs. Stacy Britt, Girl Scout Troop Committee Chairman, appealed to the PTA to sponsor the newly organized troop; a motion was made and accepted to this effect.

Following business patrons were invited into the Home Economics Department where Mrs. Snyder and her girls held a delightful silver tea and display of art and crafts. The silver is for the department and several pieces were received besides some silver in currency. Anyone desiring to aid are asked to get in touch with Mrs. Snyder. Dainty homemade cookies and lime punch were served by the girls.

Mrs. Roark Is Hostess To Club

Mrs. Emmett Roark entertained her bridge club and several additional guests Thursday afternoon at her home with two tables in play. High score award, shoe jacks, went to Mrs. R. W. Riggs and Miss Jan Draughton, bride-elect, was remembered with a crystal bud vase.

Upon arrival the guests were served dainty chocolate almond tarts with cookies and coffee and during play coca colas and cheese biscuits were served.

Mrs. E. J. Hill has returned from visiting her niece Mrs. J. E. Shaw, Jr., in Roanoke Rapids.

Congratulations

TO

Katz Dept.

Store

ON THEIR

25th. Anniversary

HEADQUARTERS IN WARSAW

FOR

B.V.D.

BRAND

Pajamas - Underwear - Sport Shirts

Robes - Swim Wear

"Next To Myself I Like B. V. D. Best"

Congratulations

TO

KATZ DEPT STORE

ON THEIR

25th. Anniversary

Haas Tailoring Co.

Suits Made To Measure

TAILORS from BALTIMORE