Warsaw Girl In "Who's Who"

Miss Audrey Eston Kornegay of Warsaw has been selected as one of seven students to represent Flora Macdonald College in "Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities for 1947-48."

Miss Kornegay has made an outstanding record, both in her scholastic work and in extra-curricular activities. She has been a member of the William Bartram Scientific Society, vice-president of the French Club, on the Athletic Board, on the staff of the college annual, and is the present vice-president of the Student Council. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lott Kornegay of RFD, 2, and is majoring in French and Social Science.

Miss Gaylor Entertains

Miss Sarah Gaylor entertained on Friday evening with a dinner party in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gaylor celebrating her birthday. Featuring decorations was the table centerpiece an attractive arrangement of red candles surrounded with ivy.

Miss Jan Draughon, who will be married on Saturday, December 13, to Glenn Brown, was remembered with a deviled egg plate.

A tempting salad course was served.

Miss Draughon Is Honoree

On Saturday evening in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Brock, Miss Jan Draughon, bride-elect of the week, was complimented when Miss Mae Brock and Mrs. Julian Gatling, of Tarboro, the former Miss Ruth Best, entertained at an attractive party and surprise shower.

Decorations were white carnations and candles, entwined with ivy. During the evening Miss Barbara Thompson gave a reading, "Prayer For the New Home"; Miss Bettie Hufham read "Three Wishes For the Bride" and Miss Brock conducted an interesting and novel "bridal bouquet" game, and the guests made a scrap book of advice for the honoree. Little Jimmy Strickland, dressed as Dan Cupid, with bow and arrow, entered, accompanied by little Miss Sue Whittle, as bride, and presented in a very unique manner a shower of miscellaneous gifts to Miss Draughon.

The hostesses, assisted by their mothers, Mesdames J. C. Brock and C. B. Best served individual bride cakes, green and white ice cream and nuts in novel cupid cups to the 20 guests present.
