The club of 1948 will have dual management. One manager will have complete charge of the players the other will have charge of the business end. Both will be directly responsible to the directors. During the course of the meeting, expressions of appreciation for the efforts on the part of the 194? officers in directing the club thru its first year were made. In summing up the year, the club came out better than was anticipated at the outset, Mr. Jenkins said. He continued, "All outstanding obligations will be paid shortly.

The new officers and directors solicit the continued support of Duplin sport fans in making the club a success for Duplin County. Warsaw is the smallest incorporated town in the world to have

Harry Harvey Returns

From 1927 to 1947 is quite a bit of time and water under the proverbial bridge, and it has been just that length of time since North Carolina has seen one of the most popular comedians ever to play Dear Madam the Old North State. Old-timers will remember the days of the traveling Dramatic Tent Shows that for many years practically the only entertainment offered in the smaller cities. Memory will bring back such familiar names as The Mason Stock Co.; Bob Demorest Players; The Original Williams, and many more. These were the old time favorites that launched many successful careers; and high among the list is the name now familiar to the present day movie fans, HARRY HARVEY. -Mr. Harvey has returned for his

Feldspar Industry Boosted

By Steel Shortage

North Carolina feldspar mining nterests are looking forward conidently to a return to war-perk eldspar production as a result of continuing steel shortages.

Acute shortages in thin steel or dinarily used in making tin cans have prompted the hope. Feldspar cannot substitute for steel in heavy ndustries, but glass made from feldspar is ideal for containers of all sizes for most comm dities. There are hundreds of pro that can use glass instead of tin for containers and while no great shift from tin to glass has as yet been made, food experts in the pro-
