"Fill A Ship With Friendship"

All is in readiness for the gathering of overseas relief in Beulaville. Gifts from Beulaville will help ease the bitter struggle of millions of Europeans. "Ships Full of Friendship", such as that planned by our State, can be anchoring points for world peace.

Residents who have not yet made preparation for their giving Jan. 25 to 31 are urged to pick out the items they do not actually need, for the items that are seldom used here are daily necessities in the lands shattered by war.

It is asked particularly that all items be clean and should have at least 6 months of use left in them. Donors may include notes with the articles they give, since these will help strengthen the bonds of friendship.

NOT EVEN ON BROADWAY . . . Manhattan's night-spots may offer the ultimate in food and fair femininity but not even the most glittering of them can produce a prettier waitress than petite Charlotte Groh of New York or a more dignified guest than Duches, the boxer. Although she's only 3½, Miss Groh serves her dog with all the aplomb of an experienced headwaiter.

Batchelor, Misses Sue Lanier and Mona Batchelor spent the weekend at Smithfield, Raleigh and Wake Forest.

Miss Rebecca Thomas visited Miss Polly Brown at ECTC last week end.

Mrs. and Mrs. Bruce Barker and son and Mrs. T. Y. Dobson were guests of relatives at Richlands on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Roland Batchelor, Mrs. Zollic Batchelor and Elwood Kennedy were in Rocky Mount where they visited Mrs. Opal B. Lanier.

Bobbie Kennedy was a week end visitor to his parents Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Kennedy.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Nethercutt of Kenansville, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Howard and children of Wilmington were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ivey Nethercutt during the week. Members of the Beulaville and Potters Hill school faculty attended a county wide teachers meeting in Kenansville Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Orzo Thigpen were Kinston visitors Wednesday.

The Willie Shingletons of Midway Park visited here Saturday.

A number of friends and relatives from here attended the funeral services of Mr. J. T. Gresham Sr. in Warsaw Sunday.
