certained her bridge club and additional guests Wednesday evening with two tables in play among a setting of potted plants. His score went to Mrs. Frank Hobbs who received hi-jacks and traveling award ashtrays, to Mrs. Robert Lewis. Mrs. Hollingsworth served a tempting chicken salad course with Russian tea.

Class Meeting

The Philatelia Class met Thursday evening in the home of the teacher, Mrs. G. Van Stephens with Mesdames R. M. Herring and Edgar Pallock hostesses and 15 present. Mrs. Herman Hollingsworth, president, was in the chair and Mrs. Herring read the devotionals. During the business special stress was laid in valediction throughout the community, especially new comers. As a means of stimulating attendance, the class was divided into two teams, namely "Van" and "Herring", each name representing the name of the pastor and class teacher. Captains selected were Mrs. R. M. Herring for "Van" and Mrs. George Hopkins for "Herring". Class members will be notified of other following business. The hostesses served ice cream sandwiches, topped with ice cream and cream with hot coffee, valentines, nuts and nuts.

Honoree At Dinner

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Strickland entertained Tuesday evening with a small informal dinner party in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Ray, who will leave soon to make their home in Shepatstown, Va. Potted plants decorated the dining room and a three course dinner was served. After dinner bridge was enjoyed and the honor guests were remembered with crystal cherberts.

UDC Meets

The James Kenan chapter of the UDC met for their January meeting on the 22nd in the home of Mrs. Paul Berry with 17 members and Mrs. L. A. Brasley, of Kenansville, visitor.

Mrs. Robert West called the meeting to order with the singing of "America" followed by the reading of the Chaplain, Mrs. C. A. Womack. The minutes were read and approved and various reports presented. Mrs. H. L. Stevens, Jr. asked Mrs. Carroll, Recorder of Crosses, to write Mrs. Edwards, regarding the presentation of Crosses and also read a card from Mrs. Annie M. DeLoe, District President asking that the chapter be responsible for the response on the program of the District meeting to be held in Faison in the spring.

Mrs. West read a note of acknowledgement from Mrs. Mary Sloan Patriot for flowers in her recent bereavement and Mrs. Stevens expressed to the chapter appreciation from Mrs. Carroll. Mrs. Inez Boney also graciously thanked members for remembering her with cards during her recent illness.

Mrs. Stevens read a resume of the chapter's general taxes for a year and made a motion that the dues be raised from the previous $1.50 to $2.00 to sufficiently take care of forthcoming expenses. The motion was seconded by Mrs. Chambers and accepted.

Mrs. West reminded the chapter of the mention at a previous meeting of holding rummage sales for the purpose of making extra money. Mrs. Stevens suggested that a box be ready at the next meeting for collection of rummage and the president appointed Mrs. Stevens, Mrs. Whittle and Mrs. Bears as a committee to make plans for the rummage sale. Chairman of the Confederate Woman's Home, read a thank you note for gifts sent to the Indies Christmas.

Mrs. West read an outline of the years work sent her by Mrs. Thompson, State President, and she also asked that all papers written in the future be prepared for filing in the local public library.

A most interesting program was presented on noted Confederate Generals, whose birthdays are celebrated this month. Mrs. C. F. Carroll presented Matthew Fontaine Maury. Mrs. Kathleen Snyder, Gen.

"Stonewall" Jackson; and Mrs. Knowles served soft drinks, sandwiches and cakes.

Bible Class

The Sallie E. Johnstone Bible Class held their Jan. meeting on Wednesday evening in the home of Mrs. S. J. Powell with 11 present. Mrs. Powell presided and Mrs. H.

R. Hipp taught the Bible study, after which the hostess served a tempting pineapple-salad with Russian tea.

Several kinds of fresh greens will be on the markets soon. Green leafy vegetables are important because they are rich in vitamins and minerals.

Circle Meets

The Good Samaritan Circle of the Baptist W.M.U. met Monday in the home of Mrs. Bessie Knowles with 12 present. Mrs. Conrad Boone presented the program with Mrs. Ira Ezell, Jr. giving the devotional. After the meeting Mrs.

SUGGESTIONS FOR CURING FIDO OF PURSUING CARS

"How can my dog be trained not to chase automobiles?" is one of the most frequently-asked questions of the Gaines Dog Research Center, New York City, these days, what with the extraordinarily great volume of traffic on our highways and streets and more and more dogs being killed — a great percentage of them because of their dangerous habit of pursuing passing motor vehicles.

Most drivers will do everything short of wrecking their cars to avoid hitting a dog, states the Center, but in heavy, fast-moving traffic a driver usually can't swerve out of the way of a dog that leaps suddenly from the roadside. The habit is too dangerous to be tolerated and, if necessary, stern measures should be used for breaking it. The Center suggests two proven methods for persuading Fido to abandon this suicidal pastime.

One system is as follows: For this method the trainer needs an assistant, a car, and a long carriage or buggy. While one person drives, the second sits by an open window of the car with the whip. When the dog charges toward the car, the whip must be used with full force on him and he must be shouted at in an angry voice to "Go home!" If the whip method does not prove successful, the same general procedure should be followed, but instead of a whip, the trainer uses a powerful squirt gun loaded with a mild solution of ammonia and water. Dogs hate the odor of ammonia and if the squirt gun is well aimed, the lesson is usually learned after one or two sessions. If one method doesn't work, the other usually will. The idea, of course, is to cause the dog to associate an unpleasant experience with the act of running after a car, to which is added his utter astonishment at having an automobile attack him, the Center states.
