Birthday Party

Little Miss Elsa Wolf entertained a number of friends Saturday afternoon celebrating her 7th birthday. When the guests arrived, in-door games were enjoyed and stories were told. The honoree's mother invited the children into the dining room where she served birthday cake bearing seven candles, and ice cream. Each guest was given a favor.

Thurs, P. M. Club

The Thursday Afternoon Club met with Mrs. D. S. Williamson at a dessert bridge. Mrs. Andrew W. Scott and Mrs. C. B. Sitterson were visitors. Early spring flowers were used for decoration. When scores were tallied Mrs. J. E. Jerritt was high scorer for members and Mrs. Sitterson for visitors. Mrs. P. J. Dobson was given a cut prize.

Entertains Club

On Thursday evening Mesdames D. S. Williamson and Andrew Scott entertained the members of the Kenansville Contract Club and the Thursday Evening Club jointly. The living and dining rooms, where four tables were in play, were arrayed with early spring daffodils and other flowers. After several progressions high score for Contract Club was won by Mrs. J. O. Stokes; for Thursday Evening Club by Mrs. A. W. Taylor and for visitors by Mrs. J. E. Jerritt. The evening was a lovely potted hyacinth. The hostesses served fruit jello, angel food cake and coffee. Salted nuts were on each plate.

Valentine Party

Mesdames Clarence Muhphy and Mary Southerland entertained on Thursday night. Set back, rummy and hearts were played. The Valentine motif was carried out in flowers, table appointments and nut cups. Chicken salad stuffed in red apples, crackers and coffee were served and during play nuts and coca colas were served. At the conclusion Mrs. Amos Brinson was awarded high score for rummy; Mrs. J. L. Williams for rummy; Mrs. Robert Hollingsworth for hearts and Mrs. Leo Jackson for set-back.

Bland - Pickett Vows Spoken Here

Miss Sarah Elizabeth Pickett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Pickett of Kenansville and Amy R. Bland, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Bland of Rose Hill, were united in marriage on Saturday afternoon, February 7, at 4:00 o'clock in Grove Presbyterian Church in Kenansville. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. E. S. Coates of Farmville, assisted by Rev. J. G. Morrison of Kenansville before an improvised altar of long leaf pine, candelabra entwined with fern, and baskets of white gladioli, carnations and double stock. The windows of the church were covered with trailing smilax and the pews were marked with gladioli and bows of white tulle.

Pre-nuptial music was played by Miss Marilyn Alderman of Rose Hill. Selections were Trumeret by Shuman, Wanting You by Sigmund Romberg, Clare De Lune by De Bussy, One Alone by Romberg, Evening Star by Wagner, Smilin' Through by Arthur A. Penn.

R. B. Herring of Rose Hill sang "Always" and "Because." During the ceremony "To A Wild Rose" was played and the traditional wedding marches were used.

L. K. Alderman, Jr., of Rose Hill was best man and the ushers were Charlton Carr and R. S. Troy of Rose Hill and Vance B. Gavin and D. H. McKay of Kenansville.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, W. J. Pickett. She was attired in an original model winter white gaberdine suit with navy blue accessories and a navy hat with a half veil. She carried a white prayer book covered with a white orchid and showered with baby's breath and satin streamers.

Attending the bride as maid of honor was her sister, Miss Martha Pickett, of Kenansville and Burgaw who chose for the occasion an American Beauty rose suit with black accessories and she carried a colonial nosegay of mixed flowers.

Mrs. Pickett, mother of the bride, wore a light blue dressmaker suit with black accessories and a corsage of pink roses. Mrs. Bland, mother of the groom, was dressed in black crepe with black accessories and a corsage of white carnations.

Mrs. Bland was graduated from Kenansville High School and attended Queens College in Charlotte and East Carolina Teachers College.

Mr. Bland was graduated from Rose Hill High School and attended school at Maxton Junior College, Oak Ridge and Citadel. He was a pilot in the Marines for three and one-half years.

Reception immediately following the ceremony the bride's parents entertained at a reception in their home. The home, ensuite for the occasion, was decorated most beautifully with standing baskets of white gladioli, snap dragons, carnations and fern. White burning candles tied with bridal ribbons and stephanotis were placed at intervals through the rooms and the hall in which the gifts were displayed.

Mr. and Mrs. Vance B. Gavin received at the door and invited the guests to the receiving line composed of Mr. and Mrs. Pickett, parents of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Bland, Sr., parents of the groom, the bride and groom and other members of the wedding party.

Guests were directed by Mr. and Mrs. F. W. McGowan to the register over which Mrs. N. B. Boney

Girl Scouts

The Girl Scouts held their regular meeting Tuesday afternoon in the home of Miss Angela Daughtry. Patrol Leader, Janet Boney, presided and Theo Hollingsworth acted as scribe. Mrs. A. T. Outlaw assisted Mrs. N. B. Boney in the direction of in-door games. The hostess assisted by her mother, served coca colas and assorted cookies.

Foreign Mission Study

A Foreign Mission Study was held Friday night at the Presbyterian church. Due to the severe weather, there were not as many present as there would have been otherwise. The class for adults was taught by Rev. J. G. Morrison and the children were taught by Mrs. N. B. Boney.

Before the meeting a covered dish supper was enjoyed in the Sunday School building.

Mack Whaley Suffers Heart Attack Falls From Wagon And Dies

Milton Whaley of Norfolk, Va.; one sister, Mrs. Minnie Gavin of Magnolia; and several grandchildren.

Funeral services were held for Mack Jefferson Whaley, 56, who died Friday in a Goldsboro hospital of injuries received the day before in a fall from his wagon near his home. Burial was in the Thomas family cemetery near Beulaville. He is survived by his wife, the former Jennette Thomas of Beulaville; two daughters, Mrs. Norman Anderson of Mt. Olive and Mrs. Lehman Williams of Pink Hill; one son, presided. Receiving in the gift room were Mrs. D. H. McKay of Kenansville and Miss Annie Katherine Bland of Baltimore who directed the guests to the dining room.

An embossed grass linen cloth covered the table which was centered with a silver bowl holding white carnations, gladioli and stock, and on each side silver candelabra with burning white tapers tied with ribbon and stephanotis. Above the table hung a white wedding bell of tulle. Mrs. John A. Gavin served bridal ices and individual cakes and Mrs. J. B. Cooper of Wallace poured coffee. Nuts and mints were served by Miss Henrietta Cooper of Wallace and Miss Margaret Coates of Farmville. Others assisting in serving were Miss Helen Margaret McLendon, and Miss Margaret Williams of Kenansville; Miss Pat Southerland of Greensboro; Miss Pattie Loftin of Raleigh; Mrs. W. W. Mallard, Jr., of Greensboro; Mrs. John Stanley of Wilmington; Mrs. C. B. Guthrie and Miss Hilda Clontz of Kenansville.

Goodbyes were said to Dr. and Mrs. G. V. Gooding.

Immediately after the reception the couple left for a trip to Los Angeles, California.

Cake Cutting After the rehearsal on Friday night Mr. and Mrs. Vance B. Gavin and Dr. and Mrs. G. V. Gooding entertained at a cake cutting in the home of Dr. and Mrs. Gooding.

The home was beautifully decorated throughout with bowls of gladioli and narcissus and burning yellow tapers carrying out a color scheme of yellow and white.

The dining table was covered with an imported lace cloth and centered with a three tiered wedding cake with miniature bride and groom and surrounded with narcissus and fern. Silver candelabra with yellow tapers were placed on each end of the table. Over the table hung a large bow of yellow tulle with streamers running to each end of the table and caught with nosegays of butter cup and narcissus.

Arrangements of narcissus and butter cups, gladioli and yellow tapers were used on the mantel and buffet.

The bride cut the first piece of cake which was then served by Mrs. A. R. Bland, Sr., of Rose Hill. Coffee was poured by Mrs. W. J. Pickett. Yellow and white mints and nuts were served.
