Tant - Sanderson Vows Are Spoken

In a candlelight ceremony, characterized by quiet dignity and simplicity, Miss Anne Wood Sanderson became the bride of James Gray Tant at her home in the Cabin Community near Beulaville, Friday afternoon, Feb. 27th at five o'clock. Rev. F. Vance Spence, using the double ring ceremony, received the marriage vows in the living room before an improvised altar banked with long leaf pine, smilax, baskets of gladioli and candelabra. Serving as ushers and lighting the candles were Messrs. D. L. Smith and Carver Turner, Jr. A program of pre-nuptial music was rendered by Miss Ruth Sanderson and included "To An Evening Star," by Wagner; "The Rosary" and "Venetian Love Song" by Ne-vil. Miss Sanderson accompanied by Mrs. Gardner Edwards at the piano sang "I Love You Truly" by Bond and "Always" by Derlin. Both, Miss Sanderson and Mrs. Edwards wore red carnation corsages. Traditional wedding marches by Lohengrin and Mendelssohn were used and "To A Wild Rose" was softly played during the ceremony. Miss Sadie Doris Smith, maid of honor and the bride's only attendant, wore a dress of delft blue crepe with white accessories and a corsage of red carnations.

The bride entered with her father who gave her in marriage. She was dressed in a becoming street length of white crepe, using white accessories, and wearing a corsage of red rosebuds. Acting as best man was the groom's brother, Robert Tant, of Elm City.

Immediately following the ceremony guests were entertained at an informal reception and cake cutting. Arrangements of gladioli, sweetpeas and spring flowers were used throughout the reception rooms. In the dining room the table was covered with a lace cloth and centered with a beautifully embossed, three-tiered cake topped by a miniature bride and groom and flanked by lighted tapers in crystal holders. After the bride had cut the first slice, the wedding cake was served with individual block cream by Mesdames Roy Sanderson, Clayton Stroud, Herman Page, Clarence Shepherd, and Miss Ernie Sanderson. Mrs. Sanderson, step-mother of the bride, wore a black gabardine suit with a corsage of rose and white carnations. During the evening the couple left for a wedding trip to Washington, D. C., and other points of interest.

Mrs. Tant is the daughter of Mr. J. H. Sanderson and the late Mrs. Kathleen Thomas Sanderson of Beulaville. She is a graduate of the Beulaville High School, Campbell College and Atlantic Christian College. She is at present a member of the Beulaville School Faculty. Mr. Tant, son of Mr. and Mrs. Otho Tant of Elm City, attended the Elm City High School and is a graduate of Presbyterian Junior College at Maxton. He is Chief of Police at Elm City. After the close of the school term they will make their home in Elm City.

Out of town guests at the wedding were Miss Ruth Tant and Robert Tant of Elm City Mr. and Mrs. John Wood of Warsaw; and Mrs. Leslie Quinn and family of Pink Hill.

The ushers were William T. Smith and Julian Davis Smith, of Beulaville, brothers of the bride. Lindon Southerland of Magnolia, served his brother as best man.

Mrs. A. R. Brown, Jr., attended her sister as matron of honor. She wore a gold colored suit of gabardine with black accessories and a corsage of yellow carnations.
