

Kenansville Society and Personals

Executive Board Auxiliary Meets

The Executive Board of the Auxiliary of the Presbyterian Church met last Thursday in the Red Cross Office with ten members present. Annual reports were worked on and have been sent to headquarters. The two Circles have disbursed $363.67.

Youth Fellowship Attend Rally

The Youth Fellowship Group of Kenansville attended a Rally of the Warsaw District held in the Mt. Olive Presbyterian Church on Sunday, March 7th. A very interesting program was held and a picnic supper enjoyed. Plans were made at this meeting for the Presbytery Rally to be held in Claxton on April 4th, 1948. Mrs. G. V. Gooding and Mrs. N. B. Boney took a large group of Kenansville boys and girls and Rev. J. G. Morrison took a group of Hallsville young folk.

Miss Macdonald Is Honored

Mrs. E. C. Tyndall entertained at two tables of bridge Saturday evening honoring Miss Lela Macdonald, a former teacher in Kenansville. Pretty arrangements of jonquils, spirea and quince were used for decoration. During play the hostess served coca colas and at the conclusion of play delicious coconut pie. High score prize was won by Miss Lula Hinson and the honoree was given a pretty linen handkerchief. Those playing were the honoree, Mesdames G. V. Gooding, Louise Mitchell, Dess Hines, N. B. Boney, Emory Sadler, Miss Lula Hinson and the hostess.

Jr. - Sr. Banquet

On Saturday evening, February 21, the Junior Class of the Kenansville High School entertained the Senior Class at a banquet given at the Hotel Goldsboro, in Goldsboro.

There was a large group of good looking boys and girls from Kenansville in the hotel lobby waiting for seven o'clock to come.

Guests were greeted by Mrs. A. T. Outlaw, Junior Sponsor, and the Junior Officers, President Hilda Brinson, Vice President Lois Grady, Secretary Pearl Kornegay, Treasurer Grace Sanderson, and Song Leader Lucy Brown.

The menu consisted of celery, pickles, tomato juice cocktail, roast turkey, dressing, cranberry sauce, candied yams, lima bean, fruit salad, assorted hot breads, hot coffee, iced tea, ice cream, cake, mints and nuts.

The program was as follows: Toastmaster, Hilda Brinson. Welcome to Guests, Hilda Brinson.

Toast to Seniors, Hilda Brinson. Response, Merle Summerlin.

Group Singing, led by Mrs. H. E. Latham.

Toast to Teachers, K. B. Jones Jr. Response, Miss Evelyn Williams. Vocal Duet, Grace Baker and K. B. Jones, Jr.

Toast to Principal, Grace Baker. Response, Mr. A. W. Taylor.

Dance, Millie Burch and Dianne Stokes.

Toast to School Board, Lois Grady.

Response, Mr. M. F. Allen. Toast to Guests, Lucy Brown.

Response, Mr. F. W. McGowan. Group Singing.

Toast to Superintendent, Garland Horne.

Response, Mr. O. P. Johnson. Closing Song.

The tables were most attractively decorated, carrying out the patriotic colors. The main table was centered with a huge silver bowl filled with red carnations, on either side were red candles in groups of fives, threes, and ones, with southern smilax coming to meet between them, which met under red and blue George Washington hats.

Blue stars were scattered over the table, seemingly fallen from the sky. The nut cups were placed over a tiny cherry tree, used as a place card. The menu books were red shields.

After the banquet the Junior invited their guests to the Paramount Theatre to see the movie "The Tycoon."

Mrs. Taylor Entertains Club

The Thursday Night Bridge Club

met with Mrs. A. W. Taylor. Mesdames G. V. Gooding, D. S. Williams and Miss Hortense Tyndall were visitors. Pretty arrangements of early spring flowers were used throughout her room where the tables were in play. When scores were tallied Mrs. Emory Sadler was awarded high score for members and Mrs. D. S. Williams for visitors. The hostess served a delectable sweet course.

Music Club Meets

The Kenansville High School Music Club met in the Auditorium Feb. 26, for their regular meeting. Kathryn Quinn was leader for the afternoon, with Mary Lee Rouse as program chairman, who led the following program.

A paper, "The Life of Bach" by Jimmy Bowden.

Prelude - Chopin - by Mary Sue Burch.

"Dancing the Minuet" - Chopin - by Evelyn Parker.

"Mazurka" (Polish dance) by Steve Gooding.

"Blue Daisies" by Mary Summerlin.

Duet - "Home on the Range" by Jessie Ruth Brown and Lyda S. Latham.

"Dorothy" by Janet Teachey.

"Rose Petals" by Jeanette Matthis.

"Victory Bells", Dianne Stokes

"Witch's Dance", Ernestine Jones.

"Minuet", Patsy Quinn.

The following students made the honor roll for the month:

Jeanette Matthis, Ernestine Jones, Mary Lou Summerlin, Addie Summerlin, Patsy Quinn, Garland Newton, Barbara Mitchell, Jean Weeks, Emory Sadler, Sallie Newton, and Dianne Stokes.

The meeting adjourned to meet again on the third Thursday in March.

Mrs. Kornegay Attends Institute

Mrs. Gordon Kornegay of the Duplin County Health Department has returned from attending an Institute for tuberculosis workers, conducted by the N. C. Tuberculosis Association in Raleigh last week.

Mrs. Kornegay reports a very interesting meeting and was happy to have had this opportunity of hearing authorities on the subject of tuberculosis control speak.

Among speakers appearing on the program were Mr. F. D. Hopkins, Executive Secretary of the National Tuberculosis Association; Mr. Frank Webster, Executive Secretary of the N. C. Tuberculosis Association, and Dr. Paul A. Yoder, Supt. of the Forsyth County Sanatorium. Each member of the N. C. TB association gave interesting and informative talks on some phase of the work. Health education being greatly stressed by each speaker.

Mrs. Eleanor Smith of the Lenoir County Tuberculosis Association gave a very vivid picture of the functions of a County Tuberculosis Association.

An open Forum was held at the end of every lecture with practically every phase of Tuberculosis control brought out, including the use of Streptomycin which is still in the experimental stage.

Notice!

Anyone desiring to rent the Community Building in Kenansville see Mrs. J. E. Jerritt, custodian of Womens Club. Charges: club member, $1.00; Anyone in town, $1.50; or $2.00 anyone in the county. Charges payable when you come for the key.

Kontract Klub

The Kenansville Kontract Klub met on Wednesday night of last week with Mrs. F. W. McGowan. Miss Margaret Williams was a visitor for the occasion. Early spring flowers were used for decoration.

At the conclusion of play Mrs. J. O. Stokes was given a pie for winning high score for members and Miss Williams was also presented a pie. The hostess served delicious grape pie, coffee and sated nuts.

Week Of Prayer

A Week of Prayer was observed by the women of the local Baptist Church during the past week. The Monday meeting was held with Mrs. E. V. Vestal; Tuesday, with Mrs. C. B. Sitterson; Wednesday, with Mrs. Thad Jones; Thursday, with Mrs. Perry Dobson; and Friday, with Mrs. C. D. Dobson.

Prayer services were held and a program was given each day.

Girl Scout Week

This is Girl Scout Week and the girls of the local troop and of the Brownie troop are planning to attend Church in Uniform on Sunday morning, March 14. The mothers of the scouts are urged to attend and sit with the group.

Personals

Mrs. S. W. Newton spent last week end with her daughter, Dr. and Mrs. Jim Wilson of Durham.

Mr. Vivian Wells, Mrs. Louise Mitchell and daughter, Barbara spent Sunday in Clinton with Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Wells.

Miss Pattie Loftin spent the week end with Mrs. W. J. Pickett.

Mrs. Wilbur Adams and children of Carolina Beach spent the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Williams.

She was accompanied home by Mrs. Williams who will spend several days.

Sgt. Robert Sykes of Ft. Bragg was home for the week end.

Miss Mary Lee Sykes spent the week end in Wilmington with her sister, Mrs. W. M. Eubank.

Mr. and Mrs. Amos Brinson, Census Dall, Joe Wallace, Oliver Stokes, Gilbert Alphin, Jack Brinson, Colon Holland, Paul Ed Dall, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Jones, Bobby and Bill Ingram attended the Southern Conference Basketball tournament in Durham last week.

Miss Martha Pickett, who has been a patient at James Walker Hospital in Wilmington, returned to her home on Tuesday.

Miss Lela MacDonald, a former teacher in Kenansville who is teaching in Kannapolis, spent the week end with Dr. and Mrs. G. V. Gooding.

Mesdames Edna Stroud, N. B. Boney, J. E. Jerritt, Miss Janet Boney and Jimmie Jerritt attended the Ralph Sheldon concert in Wallace last Thursday night.

Mesdames Edna Stroud, J. R. Grady, Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Bland, Miss Mary Lee Sykes, Miss Emma Williams, Mr. A. T. Outlaw, Mr. Parker Quinn and daughter Katherine, were among those from here who attended the Alma Jerome concert in Rose Hill on Tuesday night.

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Morrison made a business trip to Kinston on Monday.

Mrs. Caroline Gavin spent the week end at her home near Topsail.

Mrs. Doris Fulgo of Raleigh spent the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Dobson.

Norwood Boney, Jr. of Chapel Hill University was home for the week end.

Mesdames J. L. Williams, S. W. Newton and Miss Margaret Williams accompanied Mrs. Wilbur Adams to Goldsboro shopping Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. B. J. Rivenbark, a patient at James Walker Hospital, returned home Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Yelverton and young daughter of Black Creek spent Sunday with Mrs. Annie Ingram. Mrs. Yelverton is a former Assistant Home Agent in Duplin County.

Mr. N. B. Boney is attending court in Goldsboro this week.

Mrs. Remus Outlaw, of the Health Department, is a patient in a Kinston hospital.

In Your Interest

JOHN GUNTHER, noted author of the book, "Inside U. S. A." "A traveler across America cannot help but be impressed with its greatness. A country becomes great through the hard work and thriftiness of its citizens. I know of no better way for the encouragement of thrift than to suggest continued investment by everyone in U. S. Savings Bonds, which, after all, represent the continued greatness of our country." U. S. Treasury Department

Mesdames C. B. Guthrie and Emory Sadler accompanied Mrs. V. B. Gavin to Wilmington Sunday to visit Miss Martha Pickett.

Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Stokes and Dianne, Mrs. John Currie and daughter Florrie shopped in Goldsboro Saturday afternoon.

Game Club

Mrs. Joyce Payne and Mrs. Robert Hollingsworth were joint hostesses to the Game Club on Wednesday night of last week at the community building. The room was decorated most attractively with early spring flowers, with yellow jonquils predominating. Two tables of set back were in play with Mrs. Leo Jackson and Mrs. Walter Stroud winning high scores. Miss Dora Betty Dixon won high score for rummy; Mrs. G. P. Johnson for 100k. The hostesses served delicious congealed salad and coffee and during play coca colas and salted nuts were served.

Entertains Club

On Tuesday evening Mrs. J. O. Stokes was hostess to the members of her bridge club. Miss Hilda Clontz was the only guest besides the regular club members. Pretty bowls of jonquils, quince and spirea were placed at intervals throughout the room. Tallies, covers and napkins carried out most attractively the Easter motif, and on each dessert plate of ice cream topped with strawberries and cake, was a miniature basket of Easter Eggs covered with novelty umbrellas. High score prize for club members was won by Mrs. J. O. Stokes, and she and Miss Clontz were each presented a box of Easter candy.

TRY POST-WAR "FASTER ACTING" 666 COLD TABLETS

Relieve the aches and "deep robbing" miseries of Colds fast with 666 Tablets or Mints! Caution: Use only as directed.

Duplin Theatre Warsaw, N. C.

SUN. - MON. Mar. 14-15

Night Song

With Merle Oberon, And Dana Andrews.

TUESDAY, Mar. 16

Western Union

With Robert Young, And Randolph Scott.

WEDNESDAY, Mar. 17

Where The North Begins

With Russell Hayden.

King Of Wild Horses

THURS. - FRI. Mar. 18-19

Tycoon

(Technicolor) With John Wayne, And Laraine Day.

SATURDAY, Mar. 20

Black Hills

With Eddie Dean.

Alias Mr. Twilight

IT'S COMING - HAVE YOU SEEN IT?

Don't Miss It!

"GONE WITH THE WIND"

A SAGA OF THE OLD SOUTH THAT EVERY SOUTHERNER

SHOULD SEE AT

MODEL THEATRE

ON MARCH 15, 16, 17 BEULAVILLE, NORTH CAROLINA ONE SHOW DAILY BEGINNING AT 7 P. M.

ADMISSION: CHILDREN 25c ---- ADULTS 50c