“This letter is from a farmer who used natural soda on his cotton. Maybe his experience will help you solve the same problem in your own fields.”

FARMER'S FORUM

“I had been noticing the knotted stem and curled leaf in my cotton. After seeing a movie on the effect of Natural Nitrate in boron deficiency, I started using it entirely. For the past two seasons now, I have noticed no curling of the terminal bud or dwarfing of the plant.”

Entertains Kontract Klub

On Wednesday evening of last week, Mrs. E. V. Vestal was hostess to the members of the Kenansville Kontract Klub and a table of rook. Pretty arrangements of spring flowers were used throughout the living room. During play the hostess served coca colas and potato chips and at the conclusion, delicious pineapple cake and coffee. High score for members was awarded Mrs. N. B. Boney, for visitors, to Mrs. C. B. Sitterton and high score for rook went to Mrs. O. P. Johnson. They were each given attractive aprons.

Memory

There is something of memory
That doesn't fade away;
With thoughts of Dear ones
Day by day.
I wish to give you a brand new start;
Bringing sunshine into each dear heart.
To hasten back all those
Lovely Days
Of Memories that never fade away.
I wish to lend warm laughter
To their eyes again
And carry away with me all
Smiles on the calmest sea.
I wish I could mend highways
Of faith and hope.
And never be forgotten in this world so remote.
I would that you could share
And share as I.
The peace from kisses of the
Summer breeze now passing by.

Clunky

Williamston. — Highway patrolmen in the South don't know how to treat motorists, Patrolman M. F. Powers was recently told by an irate Massachusetts motorist. The motorist, Norman F. Drew, admitted he was speeding at 69 miles-per-hour. What he didn't like, he explained, was "Southern justice."

"Some patrolmen from the North ought to be imported here to teach the South how to treat motorists," Drew said.

"I'm from Massachusetts," Patrolman Powers said.

Drew posted a $47.05 bond and drove away—slowly.
