The Rose Hill Methodist Church was organized and built in 1895 and rebuilt in 1925. Rev. T. W. Lee laid the foundation for the new building. Rev. A. S. Parker finished it. The value is $70,000.00. Recently the church has been painted on the inside, new pews, a Hammond organ and modern heating system have been installed. We are planning to have a new carpet, new pulpit furniture and chimes soon. Rev. James Rogers, a prominent Methodist minister went from our church. Mrs. Harvey Boney, for many years, was corresponding secretary for the N. C. Annual Missionary Conference. Mrs. J. M. Jerome is now secretary of the Christian Social Relations and Church Activities for the N. C. Missionary Conference. The present pastor is Rev. C. T.
