Jr. - Sr. Banquet

The Junior Class of Beulaville High School was host to the Senior Class on Thursday evening, April 8. Tables were arranged in the gym which was transformed into a woodland scene. "April Showers" the rainbow effect was achieved by a myriad of colored streamers. Forming a square, the tables were covered with white and held flowers interspersed with tapers in log holders. The speaker's table featured a beautiful centerpiece of flame azaleas. Place cards were attached to pastel mint cups, while programs were pastel parasols. The program was presented at intervals during the evening. The three course menu included grapefruit baskets, baked chicken, dressing, giblet gravy, English peas, biscuit, pear and cheese salad, ice cream, cake and tea.

In addition to the Seniors, guests were Supt. D. P. Johnson; Member of the Board Mr. Chesley Williams; Messrs. W. G. Jones, J. E. Albertson and Ray Thomas, of the school committee, Mrs. J. E. Albertson and Mrs. Ray Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Humphrey, Mr. and Mrs. Leland Grady, Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Shaw, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Miller, Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Thigpen, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Robert Matthews and Messrs. Walter Beach, F. V. Spence and A. L. Mercer. Covers were laid for 105.

Honored

Mrs. Hazel was hostess recently when she entertained at a formal evening party honoring her daughter Mona on her 14th birthday. The house was thrown-ensuite and a profusion of spring flowers were used for decoration. Following a period of dancing the guests were invited into the dining room where a lace covered table was centered with a beautiful decorated cake with lighted candles. The honoree cut the first slice after which she was assisted by her mother and

Mrs. Archie Lanter in serving at with ice cream, coca colas and outa.

Family Reunion

The home of Mrs. Jeannette Brinson was the scene of a family reunion when members gathered as is their annual custom. Barbecue and a picnic dinner was served to the several friends and relatives in and out of Beulaville.

Bridge Club Auxiliary

Mr. F. V. Spence was host to his bridge club Thursday evening when he entertained in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Clark. Compiling high scores were Mrs. Irene Currie and Mr. Grady Mercer. Coca colas were served during play and chocolate ice cream sundaes were enjoyed at the conclusion.

The Woman's Auxiliary met Tuesday evening in the home of Mrs. I. J. Sandlin, Jr with Mrs. Sandlin as hostess. Mrs. Gardner Edwards presided and Mrs. P. C. Shaw led the devotional. Mrs. Adolph Jones was assisted in presenting the program. At the conclusion a social hour followed when the hostess served sandwiches and cookies with iced drinks.
