Leave Your Children There

New play equipment has been added to what already was in Herman Park in Goldsboro. You know the park, probably; for more than 50 years, folks of this section have been visiting it Sunday afternoons.

If you're in Goldsboro on a week day, the park is a good place for your children to play while you attend to your business. Pick up a copy of the Goldsboro News-Argus while downtown.

NOTICE

By judgment of the Superior Court of Duplin County in the Special Proceedings "Alice Gaylor and others, Ex parte," the undersigned commissioner will sell to the highest bidder for cash at the courthouse door in Duplin County, on the 31st day of May, 1948, at 12 noon, the lands described in said proceedings, known as the H. B. Gaylor farm, south of Magnolia, on the road from Magnolia to Rose Hill, adjoining the lands of George Gaylor, formerly and others, and being same lands in a deed from

H. D. Williams, Commissioner to H. B. Gaylor, recorded in Book 242, page 525, Registry of Duplin County, containing 17 1/2 acres, more or less, possession to be given the 1st of January, 1949. L. A. Beasley, Commissioner. 5-28-48.

The substitute of a wet dishcloth for a holder is very undesirable when one is canning; the heat from a hot jar will steam through a wet cloth instantly and may cause serious burns. Instead use a dry cloth or pot holder.

SCRIPTURE: Malachi. DEVOTIONAL READING: Luke 2:1-4, 15-17.

Malachi Demands Sincere Religion

Lesson for May 16, 1948

GET ready for some straight talk in next Sunday's lesson. Malachi reveals the dark picture of unrequited love, polluted offerings, impious priests, unfaithful husbands. You wonder if Sam Jones has come back to life. He begins by crying, "The burden of the Lord to Israel by Malachi." We shall miss the entire meaning of this lesson if we fail to read every word of the Book of Malachi. We cannot claim any of the promises of a better day, as indicated in the latter section of Malachi unless and until we deal with such hypocrisy as may infest our lives today, even as the priests and people were consumed with iniquity when Malachi prophesied unto them.

Dr. Newton

... GIVING OUR BEST TO GOD
"SON honoureth his father, and a servant his master; if then I be a father, where is mine honour? and if I be a master, where is my fear?" Malachi 1:6.
How can God bring good out of evil, when his people hold back their best from him? Let us bring it closer home, and ask, How can our earthly parents do their best for us, when we give them half-hearted allegiance?

... OUR BEST IN WORSHIP
PASSAGES in the first, second and third chapters of Malachi reveal the lack of sincerity on the part of the priests in the worship which they offered and which they taught the people to offer. Here we see that unclean hands can never bring an acceptable offering unto the Lord. He looketh on the heart. He knows what is in man.

Using the house of God to make a show before men was one of the shameful evils of the priests in the days of Malachi. It did not fool God then, nor will it fool him today. Unless our worship is an expression of something fine and sincere, he will not accept it.

THE DAY OF RECKONING

"BEHOLD, I will send my messenger, and he shall prepare the way before me; and the Lord, whom ye seek, shall suddenly come to his temple, even the messenger of the covenant, whom ye delight in... But who shall abide the day of his coming?"
One would think that such words of warning would have brought the priests and the people to their senses in humble contrition before God; but they continued to disregard the words of God's messenger.

"For, behold, the day cometh, that shall burn as an oven; and all the proud, yea, and all that do wickedly, shall be stubble; and the day that cometh shall burn them up, saith the Lord of hosts, that it shall leave them neither root nor branch."
Thus did God warn. And the day of reckoning did come—a day in which priests and people went down beneath the chariot wheels of the invaders. And once again the warnings of God, though despised, were fulfilled to the last word in the terrible punishment upon those who forgot him.

THE PROMISE TO THE FAITHFUL

BUT God does not forget those who truly love him, and thus the Book of Malachi closes with the words of promise to the faithful. "But unto you that fear my name shall the Sun of righteousness arise with healing in his wings; and ye shall go forth, and grow up as calves of the stall," Malachi 4:2.

The remnants of those who remained true to God in the midst of a wicked generation were used to perpetuate his witness in the earth. The dark days of persecution could not put out the light of his presence and peace.

Let us pause as we study this Book of Malachi and search our own souls, lest we be guilty of the hypocrisy which destroyed the people in the long ago. With every strand of strength which he grants us, let us do with our might what our hands find to do, and the peace that passeth all understanding will be our portion.

"And all flesh shall see the salvation of the Lord."
