

JOHNSON IS THE MAN FOR GOVERNOR

Subject To Democratic Primary, May 29th

Charles M. Johnson is a thoroughly qualified candidate for Governor by reason of his long experience and training while performing many and varied services to the people of North Carolina.

Johnson was born on a farm, owns a farm and is behind the farmer 100 per cent. He understands their problems and will do something about them. He advocates an adequate system of All Weather farm to market roads and Improvement of Marketing conditions.

He offered a broadened and improved educational program with $2,400 minimum salary, grants in aid to school building and other educational improvements so vital to the state's future progress. He favors too salary increases for state employees. He has approved the Medical Care Program, advocates welfare improvements, expanded facilities for the mentally ill, improved library services. Mr. Johnson stands for the conservation and development of the state's agriculture, industries, and other resources. His program of progress can be financed without increased taxes.

His policies are sound and those of a practical business man, and have been thoroughly aired during his cleanly-conducted progressive campaign.
