Bride's Linen

Summer suit of mauve-colored linen, pretty for an informal wedding.

New York's designers are fully prepared for that little wedding right around many a corner this Leap Year. The bride-to-be will be looking for something simple that will come in nicely for her honeymoon travels, and yet prove, once and for all, that she's the prettiest girl who ever said "I do."

The linen suit shown above is in a leading color for Summer, flattering mauve, which goes perfectly with a little flowered hat and any nosegay or bouquet the bride may carry. And, though it is young-looking, its lines are becoming to both the young and not-so-young. The jacket fastens with jeweled buttons and may be worn with or without a blouse.

You Make the Choice

When you come to Goldsboro and park your car, you make choice. The parking is all free. But on certain parts of Center street's four rows of angle parking and on some side streets, there is a 2-hour limit. Not quite so close to Center and Walnut, parking time is free all day long. The latter is the case on James street, in front of the Goldsboro News-Argus office.
