ERNANSVILLE, NORTH CAROLINA

Kenansville

Society and Personals

Bible School Commencement

Bible school commencement was held on the 5th Sunday night at the Kenansville Methodist Church with a good crowd present in spite of heavy showers. Prior to the exercises a sumptious picnic supper was served in the Sunday School rooms. The services were held in the church. The opening program was conducted by Rev. Lauren Sharpe with all members of the Bible School taking part. Rev. John M. Cline conducted the closing service and expressed sincere thanks to the teachers who took part in the program and to the mothers who served refreshments during the week and to all others who helped make the school a success. The beginners, primary and junior groups all took part in the program.

Immediately after the ceremonies a meeting of the parents of the Youth Fellowship Group was held. The parents pledged a greater support to the young people in their hurch work.

Miss Marjorie Jones entertained he members of the Girl Scouts on Tuesday afternoon of last week at a regular meeting with a good numer present. After the business was ompleted, in-door games were enyed. Mrs. I. R. Jones, mother of the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Jim Bowden, served coca colas and as orted cookies.

Mrs. Jerritt Hostess At Dessert Bridge

Thursday afternoon of last week rs. J. E. Jerritt entertained her club at a dessert bridge. She sered a delicious sweet course consisting of hame made cake, ice ream and coffee. Mrs. C. B. Sitwere additional guests. High score ize was won by Miss Lula Hinson or members and Mrs. Sitterson n for visitors.

Club Meeting

The Kenansville Woman's Club et Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Mary Southerland presiding in abnce of the president, Mrs. N B. oney acted as secretary pro-tem. ne of the highlights of the busis session were: Rules and regutions concerning the use and re of the lodge ouilding, read Mrs. Jerritt were adopted by club; Mrs. E. A. Newton was binted a delegate to the state ting to be held in Hendersonmade a erate States which was followed by the singing of "How Firm A Foundation." Miss Lula Hinson read the roll call of the veterans of the War Between The States and the Spanish American War while Miss Sarah West Outlaw placed a flower on the wreath for each veteran. Mrs. Bess Hines read "In Flanders Field" after which Mrs. Sitterson read a list of deceased veterans of World War I and II and the names of deceaed club members while Miss Outlaw placed a flower in memory of each. The meeting was closed with the Hymn, "Abide With Me," sung as a prayer. Before the meeting, the social committee served punch, cookies and nuts.

Cake Cutting

(INTENDED FOR LAST WEEK) Mesdames G. V. Gooding, F. W McGowen, N .B. Boney and J. E. Jerritt entertained members of the Willis-Southerland wedding party, out-of-town guests and friends at a cake-cutting after the wedding rehearsal on Friday night in the home of Dr. and Mrs. G. V. Gooding. The home, ensuite for the occasion. was most attractively decorated throughout with bloom ing magnoila and green burning tapers carrying out the traditional color scheme of white and green. Dr. and Mrs. Gooding. greeted guests and directed them to the dining room for refreshments. The table was beautifully decorated wiht a three tiered wedding cake with miniature bride and groom at one end of the table and an arrangement of magnolias in a silver bowl graced the other end of the table. Burning green tapers flanked the middle of the table. Pretty arrangements of Magnolia were used on the mantel and buffet.

After the bride cut the first piece of cake, Mrs. Mary Southerland, mother of the bride, served cake while M.sses Mary Beth Southerland, Pat Southerland, and Janet Boney served green and white ice cream, mints and nuts. Little Miss Sylvia Gooding passed doilies. Mr. and Mrs. F. W. McGowen presided erson and Mrs. Louise Mitchell in the dining room and guests were directed to the register by Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Jerritt, where Mrs. N. B. Boney kept the bride's book. Jimmie Jerritt furnished the music for the occasion.

Mrs. Scott Hostess To Bridge

Mrs. Andrew Scott was hostess to her bridge club with Mesdames John Willard of Raleigh and Mrs. N. B. Boney and Miss Erma Willlams as additional guests. During play the hostess served coca colas and potato sticks and at the conclusion she served pineapple sher-

Girl Scout camp will be in July. Jimmie Jerritt spent the week bert and cookies. When scores were liss Mary Lee Sykes was d in R with awarded high score prize for club friends.

Ga. has been visiting relatives here. Miss Dorothy Outlaw of Goldsboro spent the week end with the omefolks.

HOME JANEST

Little Hal Dilworth, Jr., of Memphis, Tenn., chauffours his neigh-bor, 4-year-old Jan Harris, around the house via tricycle while she hangs on for dear life. Their adorable matching blue and white striped cotton playmate outfits are the result of their mothers' ingethe result of their mothers' inge-nuity with several empty cotton flour bags, the National Cotton Council reports. Jan's play dress has a popular ballerina skirt just like the big girls', and Hai's sun-suit has a scalloped bib with whendler straps buttoned on Brinson attended the wedding of Alexa Carroll in Marion. S. C. on

Walter Macdonald and Troy Barrett of Duke University spent Fri-

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Davis spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mr. and Mrs. Leo Jackson and son Jimmie, Mr. and Mrs. Amos

Brinson were dinner guests of Dr.

and Mrs. F. L. Norris of Beulaville

Mr. and Mrs. Percy Blanton and Miss Marie Williams who is family moved to Cove City last working in New York is spending the week with her parents, Mr. and Mr. Rommie O'Daniel of Fort

Mrs Bill Oden and son Bill, Jr.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Precythe of Little Mary Allen underwent an

The Girl Scout camp folders are here. Any Girl Scout who is interested in attending camp contact Mrs. N. B. Boney and any Brownie who is interested, see Mrs. W. M.

Ingram. The Brownie camp week will be the last week in June and appendectomy in Whiteville during Faison were Sunday guests of Mr.

are spending the week with Mr. and Worth, Texas, visited Mr. and Mrs.

J. R. Grady Monday night.

and Mrs. D. S. Williamson.

day night with John M. Cline,

Mrs. Willie Davis in Mt. Olive.

on Tuesday of last week.

Mrs. J. L. Williams

Mrs. R. L. Sykes

the week end.

week.

shoulder straps buttoned on.

last Saturday afternoon.

Quite a few members from here attended the 19th district meeting of Home Demonstration Clubs held in Kenansville Wednesday of last week.

Mrs. Kenneth Hall, the former Louise Mewborn, and baby of Durand, Mich, has been visiting relatives here. Floyd Earl Taylor, USA, is visiting the homefolks.

E. B. Turner Buried At Rockfish

bers were present.

Is Honored

cakes and lemonade were served with an appropriate birthday cake bearing four lighted candles.

85th Birthday

The home of Mr. and Mrs. L. C.

Mrs. Miller is the widow of the

The Woman's Auxiliary of the Exum B. Turner, 47, died at Lau-Martha Sandlin rinburg Monday morning of a neart attack. Funeral services were held at 3:30 p.m. in Wallace Wednes and burial -was in Rockfish cemetery. He was the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Turner. He is survived by his wife, the former Margaret Falkner; one son, Jack, both of the home; two brothers, H. C. and Harry Tuerner, both of Wallace; three sisters, Mrs. Cuther Cooper of Nash ville, Mrs. Allene Tunnell and Dor othy Turner of New York City.

J. A. Albertson Killed In Wreck Buried In Hallsville

Honored On Instant death came to James Albertson, 37, on the highway curve in Happersville, in the edge of Kin-

LOOKING Miller of near Beulaville was the scene of an enjoyable gathering AHEAD last Sunday when relatives and friends gathered in celebration of W GEORGE S. BENSON the 85th birthday of Mrs. Julia President—Harding College Scarcy, Arkansas Rhodes Miller. Dinner was served al fresco from a long table which was centered with a lovely white cake, embossed in pink and green If one of the first steps of socializabearing the inscription, "Happy tion-government ownership-should Birthday Mother," and 85 candles. come now in this country, ten million A sumptious repast was served voters would be added immediately to o approximately 150 guests. the payroll of the federal government. Sounds unbelievable, doesn't it? Ten late Joe Miller. million votes could make quite a showing on a Tuesday of any November Auxiliary Hostess Mr. Wallace, or any other candidate, could go far with that kind of backing. There are approximately that many persons employed in the transporta-At Annual Party tion industry in the United States. Transportation would be one of the first industrics to be marked for nationalization, in this country as in Britain. This would include water-Mallsville Presbyterian Church met ways, airlines, and possibly our trucks at the church Saturday afternoon and their drivers. (Note on airlines) for their regular meeting. Mrs. the British Overseas Airways Corpo ration, government owned and operated, is expected to show a $32 million loss!) Is This Fantasy? Even in taking over American rail-party line, at first. That would reduce the number of rail employees somewhat, until replacements were available. Of course, a new and revised form of WPA would be set up to absorb the unemployed. But even a WPA-er can vote. Either way, perhaps, the government would appre-

Ten Million Votes

Lest we carry this satire too far. I will interrupt by saying that such a mess as the above is not sheer fantasy. It could happen here. The wors thing about it is that the general public, and even many folks in the transportation industry, are unaware of the danger. Yet, economic collapse and consequent government ownership is quite possible. The nation would not have to go Communistic or be conquered by Russia for this to happen. Socialism, Quickly Yet, some of those who are closest to the transportation industry fear that collapse may come. The trouble lies in outmoded forms of Federal regulation.

Too much bureaucracy can take us to socialism more quickly than we think. This setting of the scene for trouble efficiency as possible. Over 50 govern-

Elbow-room!

The trouble is that despite the largest volume of peacetime traffic, too comes in this country, it may well come because private capital has dried

The problem is this: We must have efficient, low cost transportation, and we must have it the American way. At time when our railroads, like other d to shackle them with heavy tax ns and other financial obsta nt reba at prevent one of o up as far as transportation is cen-cerned ciate votes!

Beulaville (INTENDED FOR LAST WEEK) Auxiliary Meets

Pulpwood Indutsry Replants 28,000 Trees

FRIDAY, JUNE 46, 19 18 / Start

Last year the pulp and paper | a survey made of the tree planting The regular meeting of the Pres ndustry in the South was responbyterian Auxillary was held Tues sible for having 1-3 of the total day evening, May 18 at the home number of trees it cut for pulpof Mrs. Ada R. Williams with Meswood replaced in pine plantations. dames Will Hinson, Mrs. Irene This was brought as the result of Currie and Harry Horne as joint hostesses. Mrs. Gardner Edwards presided and business included Ralph Miller presided and reports of chairmen were heard. Mrs. Julia preparations for a harbecue supper R. Miller, the oldest member of Saturday, May 29 for the benefit the church and only living charter of the manse fund, followed by a member, was recognized and preprogram led by Mrs. Horne. A talk sented a corsage. Mrs. W. J. Miller on A.T.S., the Presbyterian Trainled an interesting program "Aping School, was given by Mrs. M. M. Thigpen. A social hour followed pointed To Serve". An offering when the hostesses served cookies of about $14 was received. After adjournment a social hour was enand ritz with iced drinks. 16 memjoyed.

Members of the Beulaville Auxiliary were invited guests of the delightful occasion.

ADMINISTRATRIX NOTICE

Having this day qualified as ad minitratrix of the estate Thomas J. Mrs. I. J. Sandlin, Jr. was hostess Saturday afternoon when she entertained at a lovely party for the young set, honoring the anniversary of her daughter, Mart'a. signed, duly verified, on or before The guests were entertained on the lawn which was made attractive | date of this notice, or this notice by a May pole with its multi-colored streamers. Mrs. Sandlin was assisted by several mothers in directing a number of interesting games. Refreshment: of ice cream,

Houston, deceased, late of North Carolina, this is to notify all persons having claims against said estate to present them to the underone year from the last publication will be plead in bar of their recovery. All persons indebted to estate. said estate will please make im-mediate settlement. Grady Mercer, Atty. 7-9-6t. GM

To The Voters

OF KENANSVILLE, MAGNOLIA AND

ROSE HILL TOWNSHIPS

I wish to thank you for the confidence shown in me at the Polls Saturday by electing me your County Commissioner. I will strive to be worthy of the confidence and give my best to

DALLAS JONES

ston about 12:45 a.m. last Friday when the car he was driving over turned, fracturing his skull, Riding with Albertson was Bobby M. Brin-activities of members of the Sou-

Mrs. Manie Quinn Houston, Administratrix Thomas J. Houston estate. Grady Mercer, Atty. 7-9-6t. GM

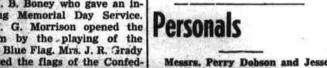

EXECUTOR'S NOTICE

Having this day qualified as executor of the estate of Mrs. Rachel A. Turner, deceased, late of Duplin County, North Carolina, this is to notify all persons having claims against the said estate to present them to the undersigned, duly verified, on or before one year from the last publication date of this notice, or this notice will be plead in bar of their recovery. All persons indebted to said estate will please make immediate settlement. This the 1st day of June. 1948.

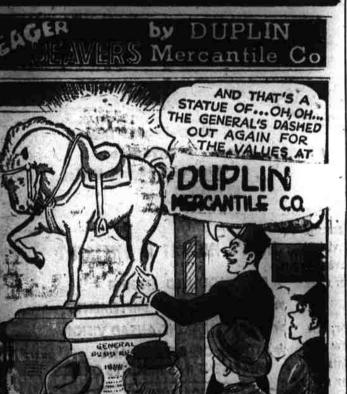

> George H. Turner, Executor Mrs. Rachel A. Turner

al for the drive of raising mofor starving children overseas. The program was turned over to rs. N. B. Boney who gave an inresting Memorial Day Service. Irs. J. G. Morrison opened the rogram by the playing of the nie Blue Flag. Mrs. J. R. Grady

for visitors

LAWN MOWERS ELECTRIC FANS SCREEN WIRE STRAW HATS For Men, Women and Children DUPLIN MERCANTILE COMPANY

Paul Ingram, Mgr. PHONE 227-1 Y REMANSVILLE

members and Mrs. John Willard Mr. and Mrs. N. B. Boney went to Chapel Hill Saturday to bring Norwood, Jr. home for the summer holidays Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Nazelrod went to Red Springs Tuesday. They were accompanied home by their daughter, Doris Bostic who has been atending Flora Macdonald College. Misses Cornelia Quinn and Elna Gray Brinson came home last week from WCUNC for the summer holidays. Miss Theresa Gooding is home after graduating from Queen's College in Charlotte on Friday. She will begin working in Goldsbord

Miss Carolyn Williams and Jack Williams visited in Kenansville on Friday.

Mrs. C. C. Loth of Waynesboro, Va. is visiting her parents, Mr and Mrs. L. A. Beasley.

Mrs. Emma Lane Died Wednesday

goes back a generation. The nation has compromised on policies so long that Mrs. Emma B. Lane, 76, died on the result is a patchwork of rules and Wednesday morning. Funeral serregulations that creates as much inrices were held Thursday afternoon at 4 o'clock from the Salem ment bureaus are charged with super-Christian Advent Church one mile vising some kind of transporation, north of Mt. Olive. Surviving are with little overall coordination of poleight children: Mrs. G. P. Anderson icy. Actually, in event our common of Mt. Olive, Mrs. Earl Register of carriers find business no longer profit-Turkey, Mrs. O. N .Lee of Clinton. able, the government is already well Mrs. Laura Byrd, of Turkey, John prepared to begin the take-over. and David of Mt. Olive, Tony of Pikesville, Jim of Faison; two sisters, Mrs. Richard J. Jones and Mrs. Effie Downing of Mt. Olive; few of our common carriers are able two brothers, Floyd and Major Bowden of Mt. Olive. to make enough profit to attract capital to the industry. If nationalization

First Sunday night services next Sunday at the usual hour. All are invited to attend the services. Rev. and Mrs. L. C. Prater ac forms of transport, are trying desper ately to reconstruct themselves after companied a group of young people an all-out job in wartime, we can ill to Rocky Mount Sunday afternoor for a special service with the young people in the Universalist Church there

Il Outlaw, student in th son, who received only bruises and roads, a would-be dictator could get scratches, according to the Patrol possibly 1,500,000 votes. There are that officer who investigated. many people employed by our rail-Funeral services for the deceased roads. Not all of them would vote the who lived in Kinston and operated a store on the Pink Hill highway, were held at 2 p.m. Sunday from the Hallsville Baptist church, conducted by the pastor, and with inerment in the church cemetery.

Surviving are his widow, Mrs. Eva Belle Albertson; a daughter, Patricia; four sons, Jimmy, William Duffy, Leslie Jerome and Albert :

Earl, all of the home; and his father R. D. Albertson of Kinston.

My Sincere Appreciation

For the confidence shown in me by the voters of Limestone and Cypress Creek Townships in the Primary Saturday. The overwhelming vote you gave me inspires me to double effort in serving you and all the people of Duplin County as County Commissioner.

Arthur Kennedy