Scouts Hold Supper Meeting

Scouters of the Duplin District held a supper meeting at the Boy Scout Hut in Rose Hill on Tuesday, Sept. 14. Prior to the fish-fry, local scouts and scouters participated in horse-shoe competition. Following a grand fish-fry, prepared by Mrs. L. A. Wilson and Jesse Wilson assisted by scouts of Troop 45, the entire group enjoyed an outdoor movie on an important phase of the Scout program, "The Patrol Method". At the conclusion the group discussed the points portrayed and concluded the evening by announcing plans for the next District Court of Honor to be held in Kenansville, Monday night, October 4, at 7 o'clock at the Court House.

The Tuscarora Council-wide Camporee to be held in Clinton on Nov. 12, 13, and 14 was discussed in detail with Troop 45 playing an important part in the opening ceremony Saturday evening during the Camporee. Various Troops will float depicting the Scouting Program in the Camporee parade on Friday afternoon, Nov. 12. Prizes for the most outstanding floats will be awarded. Attendance during this occasion is urged and the general public cordially invited.
